Singleton Argus
Death of Henry Bailey

In our last issue it was eluded to serious illness of Mr. Henry Bailey an esteemed resident of Singleton and expressed the hope that a change for the better might ensue. Unfortunately that hope, as with other hopes in the world was nor realised. The condition of the gentlemen alluded to had been sufficiently serious to cause a consultation between Dr. Bowman, the attending physician and Dr. Maffey, and but faint hopes were entertained of the recovery of the patient. The relatives of the deceased, when the case assumed a serious nature, were hastily summoned, to the bedside and they did not hesitate to answer the call.

Wheeo News
Argyle Liberal
Friday 10th August 1906

It is with sorrow I have to chronicle the death of Mr. A.E. Christie of Wheeo, which sad event took place at his residence on the 29th July last. He had been in failing health for some time past, the immediate cause of death being chronic bronchitis. He was under the best medical aid that could be obtained. But he passed away on the date above at the early age of 47 years. He was a kind patient, a devoted husband, and a good neighbour. He was a true disciplinarian of the old adage "live and let live". He was highly esteemed by his neighbours, as was shown by the large concourse of people attending his funeral; Yass, Dalton, Crookwell, and Narrawa district being represented. He was a keen businessman, and left his widow and family in comfortable circumstances having put and together a comfortable home of freehold land. He was true type of the genuine sportsman. He loved the game of cricket and he played it or the love he bore. He had always been an active supporter of the North Wheeo Cricket Club, even after his health failed; he still remained a financial member of the club. The members of the North Wheeo Cricket Club extend to Mrs. Christie and her family their sincere sympathy in her great loss. His funeral was largely attended, and his remains were laid to rest in the Wesleyan Portion of the Crookwell Cemetery.

The Crookwell Gazette,
27 September 1933

Mr. Henry Stephenson

The passing of Mr. Henry Stephenson on Thursday, 14th inst, removes from his kin one of Crookwells earliest inhabitants, for the deceased's father (The late Benjamin Stephenson) settled on the outskirts of the town about 69 years ago. At the time there was scarcely even a township where Crookwell is now situated. Born on the Lachlan, deceased came to these parts with his parents at the age of 4 years. The younger generation perhaps know little of the late Henry Stephenson for he was a man who mixed very little in public affairs. The old hands, however, speak of him as an affectionate husband and father, a staunch neighbour - a man of the land, who could handle a horse with the best, a true son of the soil.

His demise followed an illness extending over a period of five years He was 73 years of age. The old stone house, as it is familiarly known, situated on the Binda Road, is the old homestead built in those far-off days by the late Benjamin Stephenson The property he named "Alston Park". It was here that he toiled and reared his family, the deceased being one of the younger sons. Like that other Crookwell pioneer, Benjamin Warn, the late Benjamin Stephenson established on the property a family Cemetery and it was his wish that his family would all be interred there.

Twenty seven years ago, however, a son of the deceased, Fred, predeceased him and in accordance with the father's wish he was laid to rest beside the son. Deceased married a Miss Christie of "Willow Dale" Wheeo, and took up a selection off the Binda Road. Later, for many years he successfully managed the "Willow Tree" Estate. Later still, he took up residence at Brooklands and about seven years ago leased "Almond Grove", Glen Erin, which, together with his eldest son, Harold, he had successfully farmed.

The late Mr. Stephenson was a man of quite disposition, respected by all who knew him. Besides his widow, three sons and four daughters survive him. One son, Fred., as already stated, predeceased him by 27 years. The surviving sons are Harold (Glen Erin), Charles and Cecil (Crookwell), Mrs. G. Hills (Wheeo), Mrs. Bassingthwaighte (Crookwell), Mrs. A.S. Marmont (Golspie) and Miss Freda Stephenson (Glen Erin). Two brothers, William and James (Crookwell) and one sister (Mrs. G. Charnock) also survive.

The funeral took place on Saturday, Sept 16th, and despite the hour (mid-day) was largely attended. The service at the graveside was conducted by the Rev H. Polkinghorne. Many beautiful floral tributes were in evidence. Amongst them the following were noted: - wife, Harold and Fred; Wilga; Fred and Ada; Cec, Flo and grandchildren; Minnie. Norman and grandchildren, Charlie Beatrice and grandchildren; George and Alice; Ern, and Ada; Mr. and Mrs. George Plumb and family; Mrs. and Mrs. A. Jones and family; J. and M. Robbie and family; Mr. and Mrs. P. Parker and family; members of the Brooklands Tennis Club.

Bunker, Mrs. A. L.
Crookwell Gazette
Wednesday 3rd January 1934.

Obituary. On Wednesday night last, Mrs. A. L. Bunker, of Crookwell passed away at the Crookwell District Hospital, and the district is poorer for her passing. The deceased had been ill for some weeks with influenza, and complications intervening, an operation was deemed imperative on Christmas morning. In spite of unremitting medical and nursing attention she did not regain consciousness. The late Mrs. Bunker, a daughter of the late Mr. & Mrs. James Christie, was born fifty- nine years ago in the Wheeo district and relict of the late David Bunker. She is survived .by Mrs. Eric Keith (Goulburn), Mrs. J. R. Winning (Crookwell), Miss Lilian Bunker (Crookwell), And Miss K.D. Bunker (Sydney), daughters and Master David Bunker, son. A daughter, Miss Joyce Bunker, pre deceased her .Sisters are Mrs. Sarah Spencer (Sydney), Mrs. Eliza Stephenson (Glenerin), and Mrs. .J, A. Marmont (Golspie). Mr. William Christie (Sydney) is a brother. For some years librarian at the local School of Arts, Mrs. Bunker won the esteem of all. A more sympathetic or pain taking official could not be desired. Her inherent cheerfulness, abundant understanding, and uncanny ability to choose subscribers, books perfectly suited to their tastes, did much to popularize the library. The late Mrs. Bunker was a wonderful mother, and her whole life was bound up in the service and even sacrifice for her children, The same kindness is an apt summery of her character, for not only did she regularly attend services at the Crookwell Methodist Church, but in all her thoughts and actions, the Christian ideal was constantly before her. As a wife, mother, citizen and friend, we are left an example that can ill be spared. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. H. Polinghorne at the Methodist Church on Thursday afternoon last. The Church was packed with the deceased's many sympathizers, and there seemed to be an added atmosphere of peace and veneration. The Minister, in beautiful language, called attention to the sterling qualities which the departed had possessed. It was like a whisper of goodness, for her life had been a sermon. Mrs. Wakely presided at, tributes the organ, and feelingly played Mrs. Bunkers favourite hymn "Lead Kindly Light". The service was terminated by the organist beautiful rendering of the Dead March in Saul. The remains were interred in the Methodist portion of the Crookwell cemetery. At the graveside there were may beautiful wreaths and among them, tributes from the following: Lil and Dos; David Bunker, Marjorie. Eric and family, Win and Jack; Sister Em and Arthur. Eliza and family; Cecil, Flo and family; Thora Kable; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Munro: Ira and Pearl; Linda Munro; John Keith and family; Mrs. Lethbridge; Mr. and Mrs. Glanville and family; Harold and Mary Heat; Mr. and Mrs. Dawson; Mr. and Mrs. H T J Dawson (Taree) Mr. and Mrs. McCluskey and family; Mrs. W Poll, Snr and Les Poll; Mr. and Mrs. H Pincott; Mr. and Mrs. W E Parker; Mrs. Weir and Mary; Mr. and Mrs. R J Burness; Mr. and Mrs. Bates; Mr. and Mrs. W. Churchill and family; Hilary Davy; E.M. and W. Irving; Mr. and Mrs. George Plumb and family; Mr. .and Mrs. J McDonald and family; Mr. and Mrs. Carmichael and family; Mr. and Mrs. E.R. Marks and family; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Willis and family; Mr. and Mrs. J M Pedley and family; Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Cady and family; Mr. and Mrs. J.A. CHARLES STANLEY WEBSTER:

Charles Stanley Webster was born 15th February 1875 and was baptised at St James, Binda, on 6th March 1875.

Charles Stanley looked after his Uncle E.A. Webster's sheep on his lease at Woodbine Park. On 2nd February 1902 he married at Woodbine Park, Alice Christie, the daughter of William Christie of Woodbine Park, Wheeo.

Mr. William Branson Jnr, of Maybank, Binda, when on a visit to Goulburn heard that Richard and William Long were about to forfeit their sections near Binda. He told Charles Webster who immediately hurried to Goulburn and paid the necessary crown dues on one of the forfeited holdings. This he called Rylstone, and he made his home there, Mr. Branson taking the other block.

He also bought 200 acres from W.D Pagett on the Crookwell River - this is now part of the Riverdale property of his grand-daughter Mrs. Joan Johns.

When the Woodville Station was broken up in 1911, he bought the paddock known as "The Basin" on the Woodville Road, being 303 acres Freehold and 183 acres Crown land for 2 pound, 13 s, 6d, per acre. He and his family later purchased Smithfield adjoining Rylstone. This was a soldier settlement block formed from a large travelling stock reserve and taken up by John Smith, a returned soldier, who was unable to work this block due to war injuries and sold Smithfield to Charles Stanley Webster and family. Stanley Webster now owns this property, Rylstone being the home of his grandson Jeffery Webster, the son of William Leslie Webster.

VERNER ALFRED J CHRISTIE:

Verna and his wife Ethel were eventually divorced.

Verner A. J. Christie he joined the Commonwealth Bank in 1939 after getting a Bachelor of Economics from Sydney University and worked his way through the business, reaching the Managing Director role in 1981. In 1985 he was appointed chairman of the Australian Bankers Association and later that year was made an officer of the Order of Australia. Sadly he took his own life later that year as he felt responsible for the failure of a financial institution that cost small investors dearly.

Vern Christie left a note at the time of his death saying executives of Battery Group had been the victims of a clever scam in the aborted sale of the company's Occidental and Regal life companies in late 1990.

And that the autopsy found he died from strychnine poisoning and not from a heart attack, as had been widely believed.

The Battery scandal, which may turn out to be the biggest insurance scam in Australian history. Vern was one of the directors of the Battery Group and it looks as though he had taken it on a personal basis

Goulburn Street Fire 1913
The Crookwell Gazette
12th September 1913

The fire destroyed five businesses.

An inquiry was held at Crookwell Courthouse for the purpose of ascertaining the cause of the fire 4th instant, which destroyed the five business premises in Goulburn Street, occupied by Messrs. Furner Bros (general storekeeper), Mr. Innes Christie (saddler) Mr. I. H. Denning (cabinet maker), Mr. A. Kershaw (newspaper agent) and Messrs. O.H. Furner and Co. (auctioneers).

Grace E Denning deposed that she and her son occupied the premises in Goulburn Street in the block which had been destroyed by fire. She and her son slept on the premises on the morning of 4th instant, she heard crackling noises and got up. She then saw a reflection in the back part of the hall over the wall plate beneath the iron; opened the back door and saw that Christie's saddlers shop adjacent was on fire and the flames leaping out the window at the back of Christie's shop

Charles T Clifton, solicitor, Crookwell deposed that he was secretary at the Crookwell Methodist Church trust and valued the property destroyed at about £2000. The whole of the buildings were insured for £1200 with Australian Fire Ins Co., £350 with Phoenix Fire Ins Co.,

The Coroner returned a finding to the effect that the premises in question were destroyed on the morning of the 4th instant by a fire which originated in Christie's shop, but that there was no evidence to enable him to say how it originated.

Goulburn Evening Post, 27 April 1966

Crookwell wedding of district interest Guests from Sydney, Canberra, Captain's Flat, as well as Crookwell and district centres, attended the recent wedding at St. Bartholomew's Church of England, Crookwell, of Kathleen Muriel (Kay) McClung and Ian William Marshall. Kathleen, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Gordon McClung, wore a full-length gown of glitter nylon satin over pale blue taffeta, featuring a fine-corded lace bodice with bell sleeves. Her pale blue veil was held in place by a band of matching lace over blue, taffeta. She added white accessories and carried a bouquet of white roses to complete her ensemble. The bride's sister, Mrs. Webster was matron of honour, and a friend, Miss Croke was bridesmaid. They wore full-length white lace coats with elbow-length sleeves over frocks of royal blue satin. Their white satin headbands were trimmed with a bow and veiling, and their bouquets were of white carnations. The bridegroom was attended by friends, Mr. Geoff Poole, of Sydney, as best man and Mr. Kerry Pope, of Crookwell, as groomsman. Ushers were Messrs Roy Constance and Harold Reeves.

The Rev Stan Willey officiated at the marriage, and Mrs. Ailsa Willey was organist. The church decorations were arranged by members of the Churchwomen's Union. Kathleen is the second daughter of Mr. Norman McClung of Newcastle, and Mrs. of Sydney, and Mrs. Withers, of West Pymble. The 80 guests were received at the CWA Rooms, where the catering and decorations were done by the Crookwell Ambulance Auxiliary. The Rev S Willey was chairman. The two-tiered wedding cake iced and decorated by a friend of the bride, Miss Kerry Battye of Crookwell was dressed in pale blue and white and featured an orchid trim on top.

Among the congratulatory messages read was a cable from Mr. and Mrs. Sid Coulson, of the Commercial Hotel, Crookwell, dispatched from Hong Kong, where they had stopped en route by air to London. The honeymoon was spent touring by car, taking in Goulburn, Canberra the Snowy, then via the coast to Sydney, Newcastle and Muswellbrook, then back to Crookwell. When leaving the bride was wearing a junior navy wool jersey frock, white hat and accessories.

In Memoriam News has just been received that one of our stalwart members, Mr. Leslie Alphonsus Kennedy, known as 'Les' of Glen Erin passed away on Sunday 14 April whilst attending St. Mary's Church, Crookwell. Les had only recently suffered the loss of his sister. Les will be remembered for his publications on Glen Erin and his 'Boyhood to War'. Les was the son of Thomas Kennedy and Alice Anderson, married Rita Noeleen Stephenson and was father o Robert, Kerry, Colleen, Terese, Noeleen (dec), Peter, Damian, Brendan and Gregory. Les and Rita have spent all their married life in Glen Erin and both have been a wonderful source of information concerning the area and the families to whom they belong. An ex serviceman, Les was a gentle, kind man, a wonderful support to his family, his friends, and his church. He possessed a wealth of knowledge of Crookwell and district, and will be sadly missed. Our thoughts and prayers will be with Rita and his family, in the days to come.

District sporting identity Les Stephenson from Crookwell passed away at his 'Glenerin' property on the Grabben Gullen road on Tuesday from an apparent heart attack. Les Stephenson, aged 72, was an avid sportsman in rugby league, tennis, golf and athletics. However, it was at hockey where he achieved his greatest success representing in 1950, 1952 and 1954.

He toured New Zealand with the Australian team in 1952 playing between 18 and 20 games on tour. Les also played more than 100 games for New South Wales and was captain for a vast majority of those games in a long and distinguished career which began before the war. Even before the war he was a member of the NSW Colts side. After finishing with representative duties he captained and coached the local Crookwell/Wheeo club. He had also spent time playing for Services and the now defunct Buffaloes club. "Playing on the right wing, Les was recognized as a truly great player." said former NSW team mate and current NSW, Country coach Mick Anderson. Les became an Australian selector in the early 60s and was awarded life membership to the NSW Hockey Association. Up until a few years ago he ran a local Sports store in Crookwell and became interested in harness racing, leaving his chargers under the good reinsmanship of the Hewitts at Crookwell. He was also a district tennis champion and keen golfer and was a member of the Crookwell rugby league-side which won premierships in 1946 and 1947. Les Stephenson will be sorely missed by his Alma, son Geoffrey, daughter Leanne and a vast array of friends. The funeral service will be held at S Mary's Church, Crookwell starting at 11 am tomorrow.
