RICHARD² WEEKS (*THOMAS*¹) was born Abt. 1810 in Hanley Dorset England, and died 04 Sep 1868 in Redbank Taralga NSW Rg 4108. Burial: Stonequarry Cemetery Taralga
He married MARY ANN BRADLEY 31 Jul 1833 in St. Giles Parish Dorset England. She was born 1813 in Henley Dorset England, and died 11 Apr 1876 in Bolong NSW Rg 06225.

Journey to Australia

Times were extremely hard in the south of England during the 1830s. Hundreds wandered the countryside looking for work and something to eat. The sheer poverty and hardships drove many thousands to gather together their belongings and emigrate to America and Australia.

Because the Australian Emigration Agent in London had been offering 'free passage to New South Wales' for men and their wives under 30 years, interest in that developing new land was intense.

A handout bill being circulated at that time by the Emigration Agent, stated there was 'an extensive and urgent' demand for carpenters, joiners, stonemasons and cutters, bricklayers, plasterers, blacksmiths, wheelwrights, glaziers, agricultural servants, shepherds and gardeners.

Hundreds of families responded to the Bill and their moves were made that much easier following special 'Poor Laws' enacted by King William IV which ensured anyone in need could be given passage to a British Colony.

Edward Macarthur son of merino sheep pioneer John Macarthur of Camden New South Wales, was visiting England around that time, recruiting suitable workers for the Macarthur farms in Australia ¹.

In 1836 Major Edward Macarthur sought the assistance of Reverend John West, Rector of Chettle, in Dorset, in finding suitable volunteers to emigrate to New South Wales to work on the 'Macarthurs' Camden Park Estate.

Edward Macarthur took up grants of 1150 acres (465 ha) each at Camden; in 1838 borrowed £10,000 in London to acquire the Belmont estate at Camden, where they built an inn, an Anglican Church and twenty cottages for selected immigrants from Kent and Dorsetshire.

The emigrant ship, "Brothers", sailed from Southampton to end of a four and a half month voyage sailing into Sydney Harbour on 8 April 1837 under the Master Robert Towns. The "Brothers" was the first ship chartered by the Macarthur brothers to import free men and their families to work their estates at Camden.

Fatal Burning Accident

A sad burning accident occurred at Fullerton on Tuesday last, when a child, six years of age, daughter of Mr. A McDonald, received injuries from which she eventually died. The child was standing by the fire at five o'clock on the day mentioned when her clothes caught fire and she was soon enveloped in flame. The father and mother at once came to the child's assistance, and extinguished the flames as rapidly as possible, but not before the child had been severely burned about the body and limbs. She was brought to Crookwell about 11 pm the same day, and attended by Dr Pawlett, but the injuries were of such a severe nature and the shock to the system so great that the child succumbed to her injuries a few hours afterwards. The remains were taken back to Fullerton for interment. The sufferer was conveyed to Dr Pawlett's surgery about 11 o'clock that night, when he did what he could to alleviate the pain, but entertained no hopes of recovery. (Before Mr. Justice Gordon and a jury of 12.)

WEEKS v WEEKS.

John Weeks petitioned for a divorce from Margaret Mary Weeks (formerly Clayton), on the ground of her alleged adultery with William James Joseph Hinton, who was joined as co-respondent. The petitioner claimed damages from the co-respondent. The marriage took place at Isabella, New South Wales, on September 7, 1903, according to the rites of the Roman Catholic Church.

The parties to the suit resided at Burruga. Mr. W. Curtis and Mr. McTiernan, instructed by Mr. F. B. Kenny, of Bathurst (by his Sydney agents, Messrs. Fulton and Lowe), appeared for the petitioner; and Mr. L. S. Abrahams, instructed by Messrs. Gordon and Garling, of Young, by their Sydney agent, Mr. W. H. Johnson, appeared for the respondent on the question of the custody of the children and for the co-respondent on the question of damages.

The jury returned a verdict for the petitioner, and awarded £750 damages against the co-respondent. His Honor then pronounced a decree nisi, returnable in six months, the petitioner to have custody of three of the children of the marriage, and the respondent to have custody of the youngest child.

:Ernest Alfred's second marriage to Margaret Jane Weeks only lasted four and a half years. Unfortunately for his new young family, while on one of his registered mail/goods runs, he stopped to skin a dead cow. Afterwards becoming quite ill and later dying of blood poisoning he left an impossibly hard situation for those left behind. Nana McDonald (Grandmother) with two small children to support, had the Postal runs re-registered in her own name and continued to support her family in this manner. Often driving vast distances in driving sleet and snow, covering hundreds of miles over dreadful tracks this remarkable lady continued her husband's work in order to survive

Coach dies on Field
The 35-year old coach of the Queanbeyan men's under 18 hockey team collapsed and died on the field during a match on Saturday.
Maxwell Stanley Fenton was playing, as usual, with his team at Blundell Park when he died. It is understood that it was Mr. Fenton's second game of the day.

Always a keen hockey player, Max had played hockey in the Crookwell NSW district as a young man, representing NSW with a Colts team. He came to Queanbeyan about four years ago and started playing hockey with the Woden Valley Club with some success.

In 1976 he was one of the forces behind the revival of the Queanbeyan Hockey Club, captaining the B3 team which won the premiership in that year. Last year he played in the B1 grade but this year his great interest was in forming and promoting the under 18 team so that the club could attract young players. It was with this team that he died.

For the past three years Max had worked at the Royal Hotel Bottle Shop and had many friends in the town and district. He was the son of Mr. Stan Fenton and the late Phyllis Fenton and a brother of Shirley, Joyce, Greg, Colin and Sue. A service is to be held at St. Paul's Church at Peelwood at 10.30 am tomorrow followed by interment in the Peelwood Cemetery.

GUILTY OF BIGAMY.
The Age Thursday 9 November 1922

WAGGA. (N.S.W.), Wednesday. At the Wagga Quarter Sessions yesterday, before Judge Bevan, Elsie Stear was charged with having committed bigamy, in that, while being married to Cecil Oswald Stear at Goulburn, she went through a marriage at Harden as Elsie Cleveland.

Cecil Oswald Stear, shearer, said that for three months after their marriage at Goulburn, in 1920, he and accused lived together. He then went into hospital for two months, but they had not lived together since. On one occasion he told his wife that he was married before meeting her. He told her that he did not want to have anything more to do with her.

In her statement accused said that she met Stear after a telephone conversation, and he immediately rushed her off to church, and married her. Later Stear told her to go to work. She went to work at Harden, where she met Thomas. Had it not been for him she would have starved. They fell in love, and were married, and were living happily together with their baby daughter.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty, adding that accused was firmly convinced that the first marriage was null and void, and that Stear's conduct was conducive to the offence.

Accused was bound over to appear for sentence if called upon within two year

Crookwell Gazette
Obituary- Annie McDonald

Annie McDonald was born at "Bradley" near Laggan 17/12/1912.
The eldest of four children, daughter of Daniel James and Margaret Eliza Evans (nee Vaughan).
Her siblings are Ethel (dec), Jim and Milda.
The family moved residents about 1915 from "Bradley" and settled at "The Diamond" Crookwell.
Annie received her education at Redground School.
She married her soul mate John Alexander McDonald (known as Sandy or Alec) on 17/5/1933 at St. Bartholomew Church Crookwell. They had eight children while living at "The Diamond" and another two after moving residence about 1952 to Dubbo.

Children are Ethel, Hazel, Mervyn, Heather, Esma (dec) Beryl, Eugene, Malcolm and Bronwyn.
Annie was a hard and willing worker with a wide range of skills she just loved a challenge and just as well as she had plenty of these with her cheerfulness, sense of humour, determination and perseverance conquered them all. Together with her beloved Alec, they with love reared a large family of small children through World War 11 and the difficult depression years.

Annie had the happy knack of stretching meager budgets, clothing and food supplies to meet her family personal needs. She taught her children school by correspondence until they were old enough to walk to school. Annie's interests included her church, poetry, crossword puzzles, scrabble, flora and fauna life.

In her young years she played tennis and was known as having a devastating double-handed backhand.

She taught herself handcraft to high standards, sewing, knitting crocheting using wool or cotton, tapestry, cross stitch, embroidery, hobby-tex painting and rug hooking.

Annie created hundreds of treasures for her family. Annie's husband died 8/3/1978 aged 73 years while holidaying in Crookwell. Annie decided then she should learn to drive a car and got her drivers licence, which she did, to her family's astonishment of her courage and ability. Shortly after she moved from Dubbo to Wellington to a Retirement Village.

There she peacefully passed away 16/10/2005 aged 92 years.

Annie is buried with her loved husband. Their youngest daughter Bronwyn Ann McDonald known as Jackie died 22/8/2005 and was cremated in New Zealand aged 50 years.

CROOKWELL GAZETTE:

LATE LEO MCDONALD'S COMBAT EXPLOITS RECALLED

In the death of Mr. Leo McDonald, of Limerick, last Saturday, the Crookwell District lost one of its heroes of the Second World War.

As Private McDonald, a member of the famous infantry battalion of the A.M.F., he was awarded the Military Medal for conspicuous gallantry while fighting the Japanese advance in the Owen Stanley Ranges of New Guinea.

The action became known as the battle of Templeton Crossing.

The citation read: "During the attack by two platoons on an enemy position at Templeton's Crossing. Pte. McDonald advanced 75 yards at great personal risk under fire and silenced a Japanese machine gun position with hand grenades, this enabling his platoon to advance further."

The Crookwell Gazette of Wednesday 26 May 1943 interviewed Pte, McDonald when he came home on leave but found it difficult to get him to talk about his exploits.

" Can't you tell us something about it Leo?" "Oh No, I don't think so" "It's a pity Sgt. McCarthy isn't here he may be able to tell you something". "Yes it is a pity," we agreed, never dreaming that Sgt. McCarthy was down the street. Well the last we saw of Leo (and we believe he was glad to get out of our clutches) he was setting out to head off Sgt. McCarthy who duly arrived but will give you the Sergeant's story further on. Private Leo McDonald is Limerick born and bred the third sic (fourth of five sons) of Mr. and Mrs. C M McDonald. He's 27 and sturdily built and about as talkative as a radio with all the valves blown out. Made of the real stuff that soldiers are made of, we'd say.

Incidentally, he's married his wife was formerly Miss Sheila McDonald of the Diamond. After the taking of Templeton's Crossing the company continued its advance, but at Ovie, malaria overtook Leo and he was evacuated, being carried by Papuan natives for two miles to a casualty clearing station. Private McDonald mentioned with him in the same platoon was Private Harold Croker of Kempton, who was wounded just before Private McDonald went forward on the exploit that one for him his decoration.

Sgt. McCarthy gladly told us of Leo's exploit. Our Company, he said, was allotted the task of occupying a ridge in the battle for Templeton's Crossing on October 25th. Within a few minutes after the Company launched its attack, Leo's platoon in fact the whole company - was pinned down by a wall of machine gun fire which caused very heavy casualties.

We were held up and taking very heavy punishment when Leo, on his own initiative, armed with a number of hand grenades, advanced on his own to a distance of about 75 yards and succeeded in silencing two possibly three machine gun positions. In this single attack, he threw eleven grenades.

The result of this gallant act, which he performed with cool and calculated precision, was that the company, was able to go forward and capture the ridge, the possession of which was vital to our strategic position at the time.

Sgt. McCarthy added that the C.O.'s recommendation was for the highest award for gallantry. Leo, he said is an outstanding soldier and held in the highest respect by all his comrades in arms. After the War, Leo & Sheila rented a part of Laurie and Kathleen Whittaker's house, were they lived while Leo was having treatment for Malaria at Kenmore, part of Kenmore had been made a Army Hospital 114AGH. For some time after his treatment Leo continued to work in the hospital and in the hospital gardens Goulburn.
