

DO WE WANT A GUNDAROO SCOUT GROUP IN 2009?

Gundaroo has a rich diversity of groups, activities and committees, but has sometimes lacked a strong focus on youth activities (other than sport) within the village. Tentative plans to establish a Gundaroo Scout Group (for both boys and girls) in January 2009 took on real meaning last month with a visit by the Duntroon-Campbell Scout Group for a night of demonstration activities with Gundaroo kids.

The scouts cooked dinner at the Gundaroo Park and showed the locals some challenging and fun scout activities at the oval. The evening was wrapped up with pancakes on the BBQ and a sleepover in the Soldiers' Memorial Hall.

There is great potential to make scouting a reality in 2009, with a staged introduction of Joeys, Cubs, Scouts and possibly Venturers in the following year.

A planning meeting to assess interest in Gundaroo Scouts is scheduled for 7.30pm, Wed 18 Jun 2008, in the Literary Institute (Opposite The Caledonia Store).

Don't leave it up to others – if you want to see your kids get into scouting in the village, get along to the meeting and show your support.
