Leonard Family Migrate

The family of Thomas Leonard and Julia Kelly were born in Ballynakill near Woodford, County Galway. It is likely that Thomas and Julia both died before 1863. It was a poor, overcrowded district, the principal landlord being Lords Clanricarde, who over generations began enclosing their estates for grazing, resulting in many evictions of tenants and emigration during the 1830s and later. It was a disaffected district with much rebellious activity conducted by "Whiteboys" against landlords. Other Crookwell district families which came from Woodford, County Galway area were the Tully's, Fahys and Brodericks. The Tully and Broderick families who were here at an early period and no doubts their reports encouraged the Leonard family to migrate, in fact they were to sponsor many family members to emigrate from Ireland. In fact Patrick Leonard sponsored his sister the widow Catherine Fahy and her five children and helped them make a start at Grabben Gullen. James, Margaret and Patrick's Leonard's arrived in Sydney on the ship "Loyds". Patrick was a widower whose wife had died in Ireland. He was accompanied by two children, daughter Ann aged 12 years and son Patrick aged 10 years. He married Margaret McCabe in 1860 and had a large family.

Perhaps the most hated landlord in Ireland in the last two decades of the 19th century was Hubert de Burgh (Burke), the second Marquis of Clanricarde. His domain was awesome in size. It consisted of 52, 600 acres, embracing estates in Loughrea, Portumna, Mellick, Woodford, Kilmore, Craughwell, Derrybrien and Crossmacrena. It yielded an annual income of £20,793. His father, Ulick John de Burgh, had staunchly defended the interests of the landlord class during the Great Famine. In its aftermath, his land agents promoted the assisted emigration of his tenants. Between 1841 and 1871, the population of the Clanricarde estates in Galway fell from nearly 22, 000 to under 10,000. In the 1880s remaining tenants who defaulted on their rent were evicted without mercy

LEONARD, Patrick
Goulburn Herald,
Sat 14.9.1878

DEATH BY DROWNING Mr. Patrick Leonard, an old and much respected resident of Mummel, was drowned on Wednesday while crossing the Wollondilly at Baw Baw. Owing to the recent rains the river was very high, and the crossing dangerous. Mr. Leonard came into Goulburn on Wednesday with a horse and cart to make some purchases in connection with the marriage of his daughter to Mr. Dennis Kenny (which event was to have taken place the following day), and was returning to his home at about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Mrs Cole, who lives near the Baw Baw crossing, is said to have seen Mr. Leonard fording the river and the cart upset as he was near the opposite bank.

A rope was procured, but on returning to the spot neither Mr. Leonard nor the horse and cart were visible. A parcel which was in the cart was picked up a short distance from the ford. Continuous search has been since made; but up to a late hour last evening the searchers had not succeeded in finding Leonard's body. The horse and cart were found on Thursday about 400 yards from the spot at which Leonard entered the river.

Goulburn Herald,
Wednesday 18.9.1878

DROWNED IN THE WOLLONDILLY An inquest was held by the district coroner, Mr. A M Betts, at Mummel, on Sunday last on view of the body of Patrick Leonard. John Cole, farmer at Baw Baw, stated that on last Wednesday afternoon he saw deceased driving a spring cart in Clinton Street; he appeared to have been on his way home and to have turned back for something he had forgotten; two hours afterwards he heard he was drowned. Isabella Cole, wife of last witness, saw deceased crossing the river, and noticed that when approaching the opposite bank the horse appeared to be unable to take the cart out; he seemed to get against the bank at a place where it was very steep and a little below the proper crossing; the current turned the horse down the river and carried the horse and cart down the stream; Leonard remained in the cart and was carried by the stream out of sight behind the bank; when again seen the cart was upside down and Leonard had disappeared; the horse was on its back struggling in the water; it was about 3 o'clock in the afternoon; the river was high; persons had crossed on horseback in the morning, but none in the afternoon, when the river had risen very quickly and was too high to cross safely; in going into Goulburn in the morning deceased probably crossed the river lower down at Mr. Rossi's. George Slater, saddler, Goulburn, assisted Trooper Pritzler in searching and dragging for the body which was found on Saturday evening in the large waterhole opposite Mr. Harris's, a mile below the Baw Baw crossing-place; the body was not disfigured. The jury returned a verdict of accidentally drowned. Deceased was 57 years of age, a native of County Galway, Ireland, and leaves a wife and five children, four sons and a daughter. In connection with the latter's marriage he had been making purchases in Goulburn and was returning home when he lost his life. He was interred in the Roman Catholic cemetery on Monday followed by a large concourse of mourners and friends.

OBITUARY MRS. JULIA KENNY

The death occurred at St. John of God Hospital, early yesterday morning, of Mrs. Julia Mary Kenny, a member of one of the oldest pioneering families in the Goulburn district. Mrs. Kenny, who was 77 years of age, was the eldest daughter of the late Patrick and Margaret Leonard, of Mummel, where she was born and lived during the early part of her life.

Educated at Our Lady of Mercy College, Goulburn, she married the late Dennis Kenny, who was owner of the well known grazing property known as "Mummel House."

On his retirement from the land, they came to live in Goulburn and first occupied "Tarcolla," Verner Street. For the last 15 years Mrs. Kenny had lived at "Mummell," 13 Lagoon Street.

An untiring worker for the Catholic Church, Mrs. Kenny was well known for her charity, especially in connection with the Girls Orphanage at Kenmore. In addition, she was one of the principal benefactors of St. John of God Hospital. Every Catholic bazaar found Mrs. Kenny at the fore front of the workers. For many years she had been a member of the Sacred Heart and the Children of Mary Sodalties.

She leaves no family and is survived by three brothers, James Leonard (Murray's Flats), Michael (Parkes) and Patrick (Grabben Gullen). One brother predeceased her by two years.

A Requiem Mass was celebrated at SS. Peter and Paul's Cathedral at 9 o'clock this morning when the Bishop of Goulburn, Most Rev. Dr. T. B. McGuire, presided. Rev. Fr. Deegan, Adm., was the celebrant and Rev. Fr. Bouchier was Deacon, and Rev. Fr. Comerford sub-Deacon. Fr. Favier was Master of Ceremonies. Bishop McGuire said that although he did not know Mrs. Kenny for any length of time, he knew her as a splendid example of a Catholic woman.

The interment took place at the old Catholic cemetery, North Goulburn this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Fr. Bouchier, assisted by Fr. Deegan and Comerford, officiated at the graveside.

MR. DENIS KENNY.

The death occurred at his residence "Mummel," 13 Lagoon Street, yesterday morning of Mr. Denis Kenny, aged 73, as pioneer of the Mummel district.

He had been ailing for some time, but news of his death came as a shock to his any friends. Death was due to heart failure.

The late Mr. Keniny was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. Kenny who were among the first white people to settle in the Mummel district.

They came out from Ireland and took up occupation of the land. Mr. Denis Kenny taking an active interest in farming and grazing from an early age.

He married Miss Julia Leonard, a member of a well-known Mummel family. Retiring more than 30 years ago, he came to Goulburn where he had lived ever since. He was imbued with a charitable disposition and it was said of him that he never turned a deserving case away. He did most of his charitable work unobtrusively, St. John of God Hospital and the Goulburn Orphanages being the principal avenues for his generosity. He always displayed a keen interest in politics and had been a life supporter of the National party.

The late Mr. Kenny had a good memory for the past history of Goulburn and could recount many interesting episodes of the early days of the city. He was a staunch adherent of the Catholic Church. When St. John of God Hospital was established in Goulburn he was one of its liberal benefactors.

The death of Mr. Kenny recalls a tragedy of long ago. When Mr. Kenny was about to marry Miss Leonard, her father, Mr. P. Leonard, came to Goulburn to bring home the wedding cake, the bride's costume and other requirements for the bridal day.

Heavy rains were falling at the time, but Mr. Leonard determined to reach home the same day, for the wedding was to take place in the evening. He was washed away by the flooded stream at Baw Baw Crossing and drowned. The wedding was of course, postponed for some months.

Besides a widow, he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Hughes, of Sydney, and Mrs. Patrick McCabe, of Goulburn. Dr. Hughes, of Sydney, is a nephew. The late Mr. P. B. Donnelly was a brother, while Messrs. Joseph and James Leonard, of Murry's Flats, are brothers-in-law. The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 10.30 at the old Catholic Cemetery. There will be a solemn Requiem Mass in Ss. Peter and Paul's Cathedral at 9 a.m.

21 Oct 1863

The body of Ann Teresa Pennington (wife of Matthew Pennington, Innkeeper, of Binda, who died suddenly a short time ago, has been exhumed and an inquest held up in it. The result, however, is that the deceased died from natural causes.

The Sydney Morning Herald

30 October 1863

EXHUMATION OF A BODY, AND CORONER'S INQUIRY. - In our last it was stated that, in consequence of a report to the effect that Mrs. Mary Ann Teresa Pennington, wife of Mr. Matthew Pennington, innkeeper at Binda, who died on the 3rd instant, had met her death by foul play, the body was exhumed, and an investigation before Dr. Waugh, coroner of the district, and a jury, was commenced on Friday at the Goulburn Hospital. After hearing the evidence of several witnesses who had been brought from Binda for the purpose, the inquest was adjourned till next day, in consequence of the absence from town of Dr. Hanford who had to make the post mortem examination. A magisterial inquiry had been held at the time of deceased's death, when, from the evidence given, it appeared that the deceased had died in fits; that she was of very intemperate habits, but was sober when she died. The evidence of Sergeant Lynch, taken on Friday last before the coroner, explains what led to the exhumation of the body. He deposed: I am sergeant in the police; on the morning of the 14th instant ex-constable Morris called at the barracks where I live; I conversed with him on the subject of Mrs. Pennington's death; he told me deceased's husband was in the habit of beating her frequently and savagely; that he had been in custody once for almost killing her; that on hearing of her death, thinking something was wrong, he went to the house, thinking to be asked in to see the body, but he was not asked to do so; I asked him if there had not been an inquiry held; he replied "Yes, or a kind of one;" from the manner in which he said it I thought he considered the inquiry unsatisfactory, and that he was satisfied the woman was either poisoned or murdered; he told me also that Pennington's servant girl had been examined on the inquiry, that she was asked if she had seen Mr. Pennington beat the deceased on the morning of her death, and that she replied no, but when asked subsequently to the inquiry, by some persons living there, if she had not heard Pennington beat her that morning, she had said yes, that the question, had not been put to her on the inquiry, and that she thought it quite enough to answer such questions as were put to her; I said I heard that the deceased had a mark over one of her eyes, he said "yes, I have been told one of her arms was broken ;" I am aware that Edward Morris, my informant, was summoned to appear here today to give evidence on the inquest, and that he is not in attendance; Morris also gave me to understand that there was great dissatisfaction as to the manner of the inquiry, and the cause of death of the deceased. Constable Molloy proved serving subpoena on Morris about ten o'clock in the forenoon; Morris was then in bed; told witness he had a bad cold, and that on the previous day he had a fall from his horse and hurt his back, and that he would be unable to attend, he appeared to have been drinking, and witness was aware that he had been drinking heavily the previous week. Matthew Pennington, husband of deceased, deposed, that he had been the cause of Morris several years ago being removed from the office of constable, at Binda, Morris had recently ill-treated witness and knocked him down. The evidence of the servant girl McKinnon, referred to by Morris, quite contradicted that person's statement, and proved that deceased died in fits, and that she had not suffered from ill-treatment. Dr. Hanford after making the post mortem examination, and finding that the arm was not broken, gave it as his opinion that death had resulted from epileptic fits. Mr. E. Webster poundkeeper at Binda, who practices the medical profession there, and who was called in to see the deceased the day of deceased's death, was of the same opinion. The rest of the evidence was to a similar effect as that of the girl McKinnon, and left no doubt on the minds of the jury as to the cause of death. They accordingly returned a verdict of died from natural causes, accelerated by intemperate habits, with the following rider: "The jury are unanimously of opinion that the information given to the police by Edward Morris was both false and malicious; and desire to draw the attention of the authorities to this wanton act of mischief whereby such great inconvenience has been uselessly caused to both witnesses and jurymen in attendance." -

OBITUARY It is our painful duty to record the death of Mrs. Fahey, wife of Mr. Michael Fahey, a well-known and highly respected resident of Binda. The sad event took place last Wednesday. The deceased lady had been ailing for some considerable time, and all that medical skill could devise was carried out, yet without good result. The greatest sympathy is felt for Mr. Fahey, who has been married but a few months. (Our readers will remember that it was but a few weeks ago that we had to chronicle the death of Mr. Fahey's brother, who was killed by lightning.)

Burial: 18 Sep 1886, Catholic Cemetery Laggan
Cause of Death: Consumption

BUNGONIA NOTES (BY FLY.) Though known to have been in failing health for some time, the announcement of the death of Mr. James Leonard on Monday last was a painful surprise to many, the immediate cause of death being syncope. Deceased, who was 66 years of age, arrived in Australia 49 years ago from Clonnoo Galway, Ireland. By industry and perseverance he amassed a competence, and his homestead has ever been a picture of neatness and comfort. Though at times brusque in manner, he was a generous friend and neighbour, and a man of the strictest integrity. Such men being rather uncommon, his loss will be severely felt. His widow and a large grown family of sons and daughters lament the loss of a good husband and father.

INQUEST AT GUILDFORD .

A coronial inquiry, J Jr. Stewart, B.M., presiding, was held at Guildford yesterday into the death of the man. Michael Blake Leonard who was killed at the 15 mile siding by a passing train on the night of Saturday last. From the evidence it appeared that the deceased was company with his brother was a passenger by the IOpn. train from Perth that he opened the door opposite to that generally used for exit to the platform on the line and proceeded to get out on the 6ft way between toe up and down lines; that his brother was in the act of following him when a porter warned them to stand back; that at that moment the Guildford train rushed by at a rate of from 20 to 25 miles an hour and knocked the deceased down. In the course of the evidence it was shown that it was not unusual to alight at the same platform as deceased had done. The jury returned a verdict that Michael Blake Leonard had come to his death through being knocked down by a passing train while alighting from another train where no platform accommodation was afforded.

The jury added a rider to the effect that, as there were a number of stopping places along the line without platforms, the Railway Department should have doors on the off side locked, to prevent passengers landing from other than the platform side

The New South Wales Imperial Bushmen was one of a number of regiments raised in the Australian colonies in response to a request from the British government asking for "hardy bushmen" - men who could ride, shoot, and navigate in the bush. The idea was to find men who could employ the same type of guerrilla tactics as the Boer and beat them at their own game. Volunteers came from Cootamundra, Gundagai, Wagga, Young, Hay, Cooma, Moree, Cobar, Tenterfield, and Bourke. The New South Wales Imperial Bushmen was a mounted unit, consisting of six mounted rifle squadrons.

GOULBURN POLICE COURT Monday August 12 Before the Police magistrate, Mr. Sheppard, and Captain Rossi. David Hines was charged with unlawfully and maliciously stabbing Michael Leonard and Patrick Leonard. senior-constable Treacey deposed:

On Saturday night last defendant was given into my charge by Michael Leonard at his own house at Dixon's Meadows, for stabbing him with a knife; I told him the charge and he made no reply; defendant was secured to a fence outside the house with a rope; his face was marked, and a good deal of blood about it; he was not under the influence of drink; he was numb and cold; it had been snowing; the knife now produce was given me by Mrs. Leonard, a small table knife, worn or ground, tapering to a sharp point, with the point bent. I also charged him with stabbing Patrick Leonard on the same day; Patrick Leonard also pointed out the knife as the one defendant stabbed him with; it was about 10 o'clock at night when I found him tied to the fence; he must have been there some hours; his brother-in-law, Sparkes, was looking after him, and had some blankets and bark to keep the snow off him. William Sparkes deposed: defendant is my brother-in-law; from information I received I went to look after defendant a fortnight ago yesterday; I found him at Tuena in the lock-up on a charge of being of unsound mind; he was brought up before a magistrate last Tuesday and discharged; I was to get him to Goulburn; I was in his company all along up to last Saturday; during that time he used some times to walk very slow with his head down, and other times very fast; as far as I could see he was the same as I have always known; we got to Leonard's about 2 o'clock on Saturday; he went up to the house and asked Michael Leonard for a piece of tobacco; we had one horse and saddle; I don't know whether he got any tobacco; he then turned away; hung the horse up to a fence and jumped on Leonard's horse, which was also at the fence and tried to ride away; but I caught hold of the reins and said, 'That's not your horse;' Patrick Leonard also got hold of the reins; defendant said, 'Let me go;' Leonard said, 'What do you want to take my horse for, you villain;' he got off the horse and caught hold of Leonard and they struggled together; Michael Leonard came out to assist his brother with a big stick about 2 ft 6 ins long in his hand; he struck defendant 5 or 6 times about the head and knocked him down and struck him while he was on the ground; they at length fastened him with ropes; while they were doing so both Michael and Patrick said they were stabbed; I saw blood on their clothes; they both struggled with defendant when trying to tie his hands; a woman came out of the house with an axe in her hands and tried to strike defendant while all three were on the ground; I saw the knife produced in prisoner's possession about 3 or 4 hours previously; the top was not then bent as it is now; I did not observe any blood on the knife when I picked it up; defendant was very wild and excited when he jumped off the horse; I assisted to fasten defendant with ropes to a fence; he was very wild, and we had great difficulty in securing him; I remained near him till the police came; we stopped at the house all night and defendant was quite quiet; the woman, Mrs. Leonard, was not well during the night; defendant did not touch her. [Patrick Leonard deposed: I am a farmer living at Mummell; on Saturday last defendant came to Michael Leonard's house; I had arrived there a short time before; he was accompanied by another man who said his name was Sparkes; prisoner asked Michael Leonard for some tobacco; he went to get him some; defendant stopped outside the house where Sparkes was; my mare was hung up to the fence saddled; prisoner got on her; I ran out and caught hold of the bridle; defendant threw his leg off the mare, and as he was in the act of getting down, or he must have been on the ground, he struck at me with his arm raised up; at that time I saw nothing in his hand; I got the mare away; Michael Leonard came up and struck defendant with a stick; I then saw that he had a knife; he attacked Michael Leonard; I saw him strike with the knife repeatedly at Michael Leonard, who cried out he was stabbed; we had great difficulty in securing him; he never said a word but was most violent, repeatedly stabbing at Michael Leonard; soon after I found that I was wounded in the back and arm; I have been under Dr Hayley's care; I recognised the knife now produced as the same that defendant used; it was taken from him by Sparkes after he was secured; I am now suffering from the injuries I received. Michael Leonard corroborated the evidence of Patrick Leonard and further deposed: defendant struck Patrick Leonard with what I took to be a knife; he was nearly on the ground when he did so; I struck him with a stick over the mare's back; the blow did not knock him down; he caught hold of the stick and kept making stabs at me; I had struck him two or three times; I closed with him and he then stabbed me on the back with the knife produced; he made repeated stabs at me; I lost a great deal of blood, and am now under Dr Hayley's care, and am suffering from the effects of the wound. Remanded till Wednesday next.

DEATH FROM STABBING In the police report in the last issue of this paper will be found an account of two settlers named Leonard residing at Mummell having been stabbed by a man named David Hines, supposed to be insane. Michael Leonard died from the effect on Tuesday night. It seems by the evidence that a most extra-ordinary application was made to the wound by the deceased's wife; and this in the opinion of the doctor, was the cause of mortification setting in. From the evidence given at the police court, though not brought forward at the inquest, it would appear to be the opinion of the medical men that the prisoner Hines is a lunatic. An inquest was held at the Goulburn hospital on Thursday afternoon before Mr. Betts, coroner for the district. David Hines appeared in custody on remand from the police-court. The following evidence was adduced:- Patrick Leonard deposed: I am a farmer and reside at Mummell; the body just viewed by the coroner and jury is that of Michael Leonard, who was also a farmer and resided at Mummel; he was my first cousin; I was at his place last Saturday the 10th inst; soon after I got there, two persons neither of whom I knew, came to the house; they had a horse between them; one of them whose name I now know to be David Hines, and who is the person before the court came to the door and asked for a piece of tobacco; deceased said, 'I will give you a pipe of tobacco,' and he was about getting it when Hines returned to his mate; my mare with saddle and bridle on was at the fence; Hines mounted her; I went out as quickly as I could and caught hold of the reins and turned the mare towards the door; Hines immediately got off and as he was doing so struck me with something behind my shoulder; I felt I was hurt; the blow was a severe one; the deceased was on the opposite side of the mare, and then struck Hines across the mare with a stick; Hines then attacked deceased, and I saw him strike him repeatedly; deceased said, 'I am stabbed,' and I then saw blood under his shoulder; I went to assist him; Hines was very violent; we got him down twice and he got up again; deceased called out, 'I am done,' I sang out, 'For God's sake, get us help or we will all be killed;' the other man who was with Hines then helped us and we secured Hines with some rope that deceased's wife brought us; Hines had the knife all the time we were struggling and made repeated attempts to strike us, and he marked me in several places with the knife and his teeth; deceased did not receive more than one mark to bring the blood; Hines did not say a word from first to last that I remember; Hines and his mate were not riding their horse when they came up; it was a pack-horse; Hines I am sure did not get on my horse by mistake; mine was a grey, theirs a black; when I caught hold of the reins said nothing to Hines, nor did I strike him or offer to strike him or give him any provocation; we tied Hines to the fence until the policeman arrived; deceased and myself came into Goulburn the same evening and saw Dr Hayley who dressed our wounds; we went home the same night, but had great difficulty in doing so; we were both suffering great pain before coming into Goulburn; deceased's wife putting some pig-dung on the wound behind his shoulder to stop the bleeding; I did not see what was put on but deceased told me; it was bound on with bandages and left on until taken off when we came to the doctor; I have heard pig-dung being used before to stop bleeding; deceased saw doctor again on Monday evening in Goulburn; he was a witness against Hines at the police-court; we went home that night; deceased was very bad all the way home; he complained of being weak and came to my place before going home as it is nearer to Goulburn; I afterwards sent him home; the next morning he sent for me to go for the doctor who came in the evening, by which time mortification had set in; the wound was black all round; the doctor told me there was no hope; deceased got worse rapidly and died at about half past 11 that night; his wife is not here today; she has not been off her bed since Saturday, and is dangerously ill; deceased was 39 years old and has left 5 children; he was a native of Ireland, County of Galway; up to the time deceased said, 'I'm done'; Hines's mate was looking on; there was no sign of grog on Hines or his mate; they were both strangers to deceased and myself; Hines came to deceased's place about 2 o'clock, and we got to the doctors a little before sundown; deceased was in good health up till Saturday last; I was present on Monday last when deceased was examined; I heard him state in the presence of the prisoner, 'I saw prisoner strike Leonard (meaning myself) when he (prisoner) was nearly on the ground;' I also heard deceased state, 'I then ran up and struck prisoner; the blow did not knock him down; the prisoner caught hold of the stick, and made repeated stabs at me with what I took to be a knife;' the knife produced is the knife Hines struck me with; I saw it in his hands at the time of the disturbance.

William Sparks deposed: I am a gardener's labourer and live in Goulburn; Hines is my wife's brother; I was returning from Tuena with him last Saturday; when we got to deceased's house Hines said he wanted some tobacco, and went up to the place to ask for some; I remained outside at the fence; Hines just spoke to deceased and went away a few yards leading his own horse; he suddenly turned to the fence, hung up his own horse, and jumped on to P Leonard's horse, which was tied to the fence; he was starting away; I caught hold of the reins; Hines got off at once; as he was getting off I did not see him do anything; I was between the horses and as soon as I got clear I saw the two Leonards and Hines struggling together; I did not see deceased come up and strike Hines; when they were struggling, one of the Leonards, I think Patrick, had a stick in his hands; I could not see anything in Hines's hand; I heard deceased say, 'I will have to leave you, I am stabbed;' at that time I was trying to get hold of prisoner's hands; he was very violent; in about 1/4 of an hour we got him secured with some rope; as we were tying him I saw the knife produced fall from his side; I do not believe he could have had this knife in his hand when we were struggling; he may have struck deceased with the knife without my seeing him; I know the knife to be Hines's; he used to carry it in his coat pocket; just after deceased said he was stabbed I saw blood on his coat; I did not hear either of the Leonards say anything to Hines to provoke him; Hines had been prospecting at Tuena; I went up there because I heard he was going on queer; I found him in the lock-up; the lock-up keeper told me Hines came to him and asked him to put him in the lock-up because the freemasons were after him; he was detained there as a lunatic; I never knew him to be wrong in his mind; I have known him well for 15 years; he has lived with me; he came in quietly from Tuena as far as Leonard's; there was nothing unusual in his manner that I could see except that he sometimes walked very fast and sometimes very slow; I was not afraid of his having the knife because I never saw any reason to be afraid of him; he had had no grog that day, nor anything to eat; he would take anything; when I saw the knife with deceased the last time before we came to Leonard's it was straight, not bent as it is now; I did not see one of the Leonards strike Hines several blows with a stick across the head; this was at the commencement of the struggle and I believe before deceased called out he was stabbed; I did not see the Leonards at the police-court; having seen P Leonard today, I believe it was he who struck Hines with a stick. Dr Hayley deposed: on Saturday afternoon last the deceased came to my surgery complaining that he had been stabbed in the back; I attended to his brother and directed my assistant to take deceased into the next room; and remove his clothing and clean the wound preparatory to my dressing it; I found a good deal of blood on his clothes; there was an incised wound at the back of the left shoulder joint about 3 inches long and an inch and a half deep; I probed it, and finding no foreign substance in it closed it up with stitches; I saw him on the following Monday and examined it; he then did not complain of any pain in it; the edges of the wound looked rather angry which I attributed to the friction of the stiff and dirty shirt which he still retained; I applied a little friar's balsam and some liniment, and directed him to get on some clean clothing; I was sent for the next day to see him at his own residence; I found a great tumefaction about the left arm, extending down the chest to the hip; the whole of the side appeared to be in a gangrenous state; I opened the wound; a quantity of chlorous frothy matter was discharged; he was almost pulseless, and in a semi-delirious state; I gave him ammonia and other stimulants and saw the case was hopeless; I have this day made a post-mortem of the body; deceased appeared to be about 40 years of age, and in good bodily health up till the time of his death; I saw no other marks of injury on the body than the wound I have already described; it was merely muscular, neither involving tendons, nerves, or arteries to render it a dangerous wound; mortification had set in from there, and extended all round the side of the body; I could not in any way account for such serious results following so trifling an injury until I heard subsequently to my last seeing him that there had been applied pig-dung and other animal excrement to the wound, and that it had remained in contact with it for 3 or 4 hours; my opinion is that this produced blood-poisoning and rendered a simple wound a dangerous one; there was no penetration into the cavity of the chest, nor did the deceased ever complain to me of any pain further than a mere soreness from the cut; in my opinion, but for the poisoning of the wound in the way I have mentioned, it was not a dangerous one, and death would not have ensued; the knife produced would have been sufficient to cause the injury. The jury found that the deceased came to his death from injuries, the result of a stab inflicted by David Hines, against whom they returned a verdict of wilful murder. Hines was thereupon committed by the coroner for trial at the ensuing Goulburn Assizes on the 21 October next.

GOULBURN POLICE COURT
Wed August 14, 1872.

Before the police-magistrate Mr. Sheppard and Mr. Rossi.

David Hines, on remand, charged with unlawfully stabbing Michael Leonard and Patrick Leonard, was again brought up and evidence taken; but as most of the particulars will be found in the report of the inquest on Michael Leonard, who had since died and which is reported above, it is unnecessary here to repeat it.

The following evidence is in addition to that given at the inquest. Dr. Hayley described the wounds on Michael Leonard and with respect to Patrick Leonard deposed: He had an incised wound on the back a few inches from left side of his spine; it extended to the ribs about 2 inches in depth; the wound was about 3/4 inch in length, his clothes were saturated with blood; I found corresponding cuts in his poncho coat, and two undershirts; the wound had been produced by some sharp cutting instrument; the knife produced would inflict such a wound; he had also a cut on the right hand, and his thumbs looked as if they had been bitten; I saw prisoner on Tuesday and on Monday I examined him in the gaol; I found him much bruised about the head and face; from his replies to questions put to him, from his appearance, and from what I had previously heard of this case, I believe him to be of unsound mind and a dangerous lunatic.

Dr Moreton deposed: I saw prisoner in the gaol first on Tuesday; he was much bruised about the head, face, and hands, his right hand much swollen, and there were marks as of ropes having been tied round his wrists and ankles; also had abrasion on his right knee; on questioning him how he sustained these injuries, he was unable to account for them; but after some direct questions he said he had a confused idea of having had a scuffle with someone, but could not tell me when or where; I have seen him daily since and find him of a very morose and obstinate disposition; I am of opinion that he suffers from aberrations of intellect and uncontrollable fits of passion; I consider him of unsound mind and unsafe to be at large.

CLUE TO ROBBER

Wind Took It -To Sergeant A scrap of paper, blown by the wind to the feet of a police sergeant in Market St. Tuesday night led to a charge of robbery being preferred against two young men who had been arrested a –short time previously on another count. The detention of the men was the result of a particularly smart piece of work by two uniformed officers, Sergeant Sutor and Constable Carroll, whose investigations revealed that on Tuesday afternoon a house at Grafton Street had been burgled and more than £13 in cash, as well as rings and other articles, had been stolen. According to inquiries made by the Penny Post it appears that burglars forced an entrance to the residence of Miss Bridget Leonard, who resides with her sister at 66 Grafton Street. Both occupants were absent at the time but it is believed that Miss Leonard returned home while the burglars were still at work and disturbed them. As she did not immediately report the occurrence, it was not until early yesterday morning that the police learned of the robbery and their attention was first directed by a report received on Tuesday night that two men had allegedly attempted to cash a cheque for £6 at a Goulburn Hotel. Inquiries revealed that the cheque, which is now believed to be similar to the one reported stolen from Miss Leonard's residence, had also been tendered at several other hotels. Into the arms of the police, Sergeant Sutor and Constable Carroll were walking down Verner Street to Auburn Street at about 11.30a.m. when two men whom they desired to interview almost ran into their arms and were taken to the police station. Continuing their investigations, the officers went to Market Street, where Sergeant Sutor picked up a small piece of paper which was blowing across the footpath. Its colour indicated it had been torn from a cheque and an examination of the area revealed similar scraps. Using their torches to examine gutters and culverts in both Market and Sloane Streets, the officers picked in about 50 pieces. These, it is stated are considered to be portions of the cheque in question. Further inquiries yesterday morning revealed that the residence of Miss Leonard had been entered on Tuesday and property including a cheque, had been stolen.

MEN CHARGED At the Goulburn Police Court yesterday morning John Alwyn Marshall and Lindsay Painter, 23, were each charged with breaking and entering the residence of Bridget Mary Leonard and stealing 3 rings, 3 broches, 3 trinkets, a cheque drawn on the Commercial Banking Company of Sydney in favour of Miss Leonard for £6, and the sum of £13/3/4. By consent, the defendants were remanded until Monday next on £40 bail. In announcing that the defendant did not oppose the remand application, which was sought to enable the police to make further inquiries, Sergeant Suitor said that part of the property reported stolen had been recovered. Both defendants were also fined 2/6 or the rising of the court on a charge of drunkenness.

JOHN HEFFERNAN V JOHN LEONARD

This was a claim of £30 for malicious prosecution. Mr. Howard appeared for plaintiff, and Mr. Gannon for defendant. Plaintiff deposed that he lived at Baw Baw; on the 5th June last Constable Drummond and the defendant came to his house and, read a search warrant to him; they said they had come to search his house for a pair of blankets; they searched the place and found nothing; defendant said that he had got the warrant, as plaintiff was seen at the camp a couple of days before; plaintiff's three children were at home at the time; plaintiff was not near defendant's camp; he only passed it along the road while coming in to Goulburn; he did not pass the camp in returning, as he came by another road. To Mr. Gannon: Defendant was quite a stranger to plaintiff; the camp was not on a by-road; he did not take nearly three hours in passing the camp; it was about two miles from his house. John Leonard, labourer, living, at Baw Baw, said that in June last he was living in a camp on the road-side; he missed a pair of blankets, worth about £1, while he was working on the road; the camp was on the old Crookwell road, which was not very much used; he saw no tramps on it while he was there; the day after he missed the blanket a man named Coggan told him he saw plaintiff at the camp; Meehan and Wessler, the contractors, sent a letter to Mr. Fenton, and Senior-constable Drummond came out and asked defendant whether he had any suspicions; defendant told him he had and the constable said he could do nothing without a search warrant; subsequently defendant signed a warrant and went to the place with the constable, as the latter said he did not know where Heffernan lived; nothing was found at the place; defendant told the plaintiff that he got the warrant because plaintiff had been seen close to the camp; defendant had no grudge against the man. Henry Thomas Coggan, labourer, said he remembered the day the blankets were missed; he saw Heffernan on that day about 30 yards from the camp, walking along the road; there was no one else in sight. Patrick Meehan, road contractor, said he wrote the letter produced to Mr. Fenton, reporting the lose of the blankets; he was on the road for 11 weeks and did not see a tramp on it. His Honor said that it appeared to him that defendant had no reasonable, probable cause for instituting the proceedings, but it also appeared to him that it was done without any malice. He found in favour of defendant with three witnesses.

GUISE-LEONARD

Nuptial Mass. was celebrated at SS. Peter and Paul's Cathedral on Monday, morning last, when - Harry, youngest son of the late Mr. and J Mrs. William Guise, of "Springfield", Gundaroo, was married: to Louise, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Leonard, of Murray's Flats. The ceremony was performed by Very Rev. Fr. Carey, Adm., who celebrated Nuptial Mass. The bride, who was given away by her father, Mr. James Leonard, looked charming in a gown of blue chiffon with hat to match. She carried a beautiful Ivory covered prayer book, the gift of the bridegroom. Her sister, Miss Jane Leonard, was bridesmaid and wore a frock of navy blue with hat to tone. The maids of honour, Miss Noelene Hughes and Miss Edna Meehan, nieces of the bridegroom, chose frocks of green crepe de chine and green muslin, respectively, and both carried pretty boutquets of carnations and ferns. Mr. Eugene Guise, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. Meehan, of Francis Street, Garfield, Mr. M. Carren being chairman. Later the couple left for the South Coast, where the honeymoon is to be spent, the bride travelling in a brown ensemble. The couple, who were the recipients of many presents including a number of cheques, will make their home at Kenmore.

AN APPEAL.

Joseph Leonard appealed against his conviction on 9th April 1908 at the Police Court for assaulting Leslie George Matthews on the 3rd April. Mr. Thomas appeared for the applicant, and Mr. Selwyn F. Betts, instructed by Mr. A. M. Betts, for the respondent. The grounds of the appeal were that the decision was against the weight of evidence, that the evidence was insufficient, and also that the fine was excessive. On the occasion in question Leonard was fined £2. It was stated he was driving a bus and respondent a cab when the assault took place. After hearing the evidence his Honor sustained the conviction. Mr. S. Betts was allowed £3 3s, professional expenses

MARTIN CLANCY:
"Laggan Hotel"

In 1855 Martin Clancy applied for a licence for the premises at Laggan, according to the application the building was being uses as a store but now wanted to turn it into an Inn. Martin called it the Laggan Hotel.

Mrs. Jane Fahey in ran the hotel in 1897, then in the name of John Joseph Cummins (Jane's second husband) who ran it until 1898. It was then sold to M McAlister who had it for part of 1899 and then John Joseph Cummins bought it back again and ran it till the end of the century. In 1908 Mrs. Cummins was charged with selling whisky on the Laggan sports ground on new years day, without having a licence to do so, a court case ensued.

In 1924 Jane Cummins built the present day hotel to replace the previous "Laggan Hotel" that was partially destroyed by fire. The hotel was previously located where the car park is, next to the present hotel. Jane's son James Simon Fahey assumed the ownership for a number of years and eventually left to run the Fahey family property "Islington" at Binda.

Obituary

An old and highly-respected resident in the person of Martin Clancy passed over to the great majority on Thursday last at his residence, North Crookwell, at the age of 60 years. Deceased contracted a cold a short time since which brought on influenza, and was followed by other complications, which resulted in his death. Deceased was born at Clear Hills near Gunning, and was a son of the late Mr. Patrick Clancy, Gunning. He had been a resident of the district for about 30 years, and was at one time proprietor and licensee of the Laggan Hotel which he built. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn their loss. The children are Messrs Francis Clancy (Wallerawang), Stephen Clancy (Cowra) and Mrs. Henderson (Waverley). The remains were interred in Crookwell Cemetery on Saturday afternoon, whither they were followed by a large concourse of sympathisers. The Rev. M Vaughan officiated at the grave, and the funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs Kennedy & Thurkettle. DEATH OF CAPTAIN PORTER

The sad news was received today that Captain Simon Fahey Porter, M.C., had died as a result of wounds. The information was cabled, to Mr. J. H. Larndager by Mrs. H. G. Wheeler. Captain Porter was on the teaching staff of the Red Hill State School and went into camp as a private about three years ago. His previous military training enabled him to quickly secure a commission and, on arrival in France, he soon rose to the rank of captain. He was awarded the Military Cross for bravery. Later he was seriously wounded, and for some time he was in hospital, the lower part of his body being paralysed. Captain Porter was about thirty years of age and was highly thought of by all who knew him. The flags at the various schools were flown at half mast, today as a mark of respect to his memory

17. JAMES SIMON⁴ FAHEY (CATHERINE³ LEONARD, THOMAS², UNKNOWN MALE¹) was born 1854 in Ballynakill Galway Ireland, and died 11 Aug 1886 in Binda NSW Rg 6772. He married JANE THERESA O'BRIEN 10 Jan 1886 in Laggan NSW Rg.4035, daughter of DANIEL O'BRIEN and CATHERINE BRAZIL. She was born 29 Aug 1854 in Laggan NSW Rg.1998-71 Bapt 14 Oct 1854 Peter And Pauls Goulburn, and died 03 Nov 1936 in Crookwell District Hospital NSW.

JAMES SIMON FAHEY:

James Simon Fahey was born at Wooford Ballynakill, Ireland, the son of Simon Fahey and Catherine Leonard. They arrived in Australia 1863 per "John Temperly" with brothers Simon and Michael.

James married Jane O'Brien and had one son James Simon born 1886, James was struck by lightening whilst building a shed with Joseph Bullard during a violent storm when lightening struck and hit him killing him instantly. He died aged 31yrs of age after being married for just a year to Jane O'Brien.

FAHEY, James Simon
Crookwell Gazette,
Fri 13.8.1886

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING It is our painful duty to record the death of Mr. James Fahey, a well-known and highly-respected resident of Binda, which sad occurrence took place between three and four o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. It appears that during a thunderstorm on that day the deceased, with a youth named Bullard, was at work erecting a shed and had been using a spade, when he was struck by lightning on the back of the neck and killed.

The lad was knocked down by the force of the shock, but was not seriously injured. A huge tree about thirty yards from the shed was at the same time splintered into atoms. Bullard immediately informed Mr. Michael Fahey, deceased's brother and also deceased's wife, who at once ran to where her husband was lying. The unfortunate man was not then dead, and seeing his wife he put his arms about her neck, and saying "I'm all right", expired. Mr. Michael Fahey reported the sad occurrence to Senior-Constable Travers, who communicated with the coroner. An inquest was held yesterday afternoon. Deceased, who was about thirty years of age, was a son-in-law of Mr. Daniel O'Brien, the well-known hotelkeeper of Laggan. The deepest sympathy is felt by all in the district with Mrs. Fahey, who has been married only about seven months. The Fahey family also share the heartfelt regret of their friends and neighbours. The funeral will take place tomorrow, and will leave the deceased's late residence at 10 am.

Goulburn Herald,
Sat 14.8.1886

CROOKWELL Friday 4.25 pm Yesterday morning news was brought here that Mr. James Fahey of Binda had been killed the previous evening by lightning. Deceased was engaged with a young man named Bullard putting up a shearing shed. At about two in the afternoon during a very severe thunderstorm, a vivid flash of lightning came near them. Bullard was struck down, but immediately jumped up; he then saw Fahey falling; he went to him and raised him up. Fahey said, 'for God's sake, lay me down.' Fahey's wife was engaged in the kitchen a hundred yards away, which was also struck by lightning, breaking some crockery; she ran out in alarm and saw her husband being supported. In answer to her he said, 'I am right - I am right,' then groaned and died. An inquest was held yesterday.

Great sympathy is felt for Fahey's relatives and widow. Deceased had been married only about seven months.

CROOKWELL INQUEST

An inquest was held at Binda by M. Prosser, coroner, on Thursday, 12th instant, upon the body of James Fahey killed the previous day by lightning. The following jury were sworn: Rev E G Hutchings, James Eldridge, G T Hall, W A Long, Jas Doran, Chas E Doran, J Hoy, T Atkinson, George King, Alexander McDonald, Frederick Branson, and A H McDonald, foreman. The jurors, having viewed the body.

Constable Travers deposed: I am in charge of the police station, Binda; between 3 and 4 o'clock yesterday evening Michael Fahey, deceased's brother, came to the station and stated that his brother James had been killed by lightning; I proceeded at once to the place; the deceased was lying in the parlour of his residence; I felt the body; it was quite warm, but life was extinct; there were no marks of violence upon the body; the back part of the neck was discoloured; on inquiry I found that the deceased had been working at a shed about 100 yards from the house; about 50 yards from the spot where deceased had been working I saw a tree that had been splintered to pieces by the lightning; I examined the place where deceased had been working and found his tools round there; no appearance of any disturbance was about the ground; deceased was always of very temperate habits.

Joseph Bullard deposed: I am a labourer residing near Binda; yesterday evening I was working with Mr James Fahey; we were putting up slabs for a shearing shed, at which the deceased was standing close to the door; I was digging a trench for slabs to be put in; at about half past two during a thunder storm a heavy flash of lightning came between us; I fell to the ground, and on rising saw the deceased James Fahey, reel and fall; I ran to his assistance and held him up; he said, 'Oh, for God's sake let me lie down again;' Mrs. James Fahey came running, seeing me hold him up and she said, 'You are not dead, are you James?' and he said, 'no, I am all right;' I ran over and fetched a cup of water; I also ran to Mrs. Hampstead, a neighbour, and she came over and assisted Mrs. James Fahey to carry the deceased into the house.

To Constable Travers: I was on friendly terms with the deceased and never had any quarrel with him. To a Juror: the deceased was not able to walk to the house. Jane Fahey deposed: the deceased, whom the jury had just viewed was my husband; yesterday afternoon at about half past two, during a storm I was in the kitchen of our house; the lightning struck the mantle piece and broke several ornaments; I ran out and called for my husband who was working at the shed about 50 yards distant; he did not answer and I then saw Joseph Bullard holding him up; I ran to him and said, 'James, are you dead?' and he said, 'No, Jane, I am all right - I am all right;' he groaned and never moved any more; Mrs. Hampstead, a neighbour came over and with her assistance I put him on a sofa and carried him over to the house; old Mr. Hampstead met us on the way and assisted us; when I lifted deceased on to the sofa he appeared to be dead. William Hampstead deposed: I am a farmer residing at the Crookwell River; yesterday afternoon, about half past two I heard some screaming near my house which is about 20 or 30 rods distant from M. James Fahey's residence, and when I got to the house some one said, 'Jim (meaning the deceased) is dead;' I went over to the shed and found him lying on a sofa with a blanket over; there was a very heavy thunderstorm occurring at the time, with lightning; I felt his hand for a moment or two and found he was dead; I assisted to carry him in to the house. The jury found that the deceased, James Fahey, was killed by a stroke of lightning at his residence near Binda, on the afternoon of Wednesday, 11th August. This sad event has thrown a gloom over the town of Binda where Mr. James Fahey was well and deservedly respected. But seven months ago the deceased was married to Miss Jane O'Brien, daughter of Mr. Daniel O'Brien of Laggan, thus involving also that family in the gloom attending this unhappy event. d 11.8.1886, par Simon/Catherine Leonard, husband of Jane Theresa O'Brien who m 2. Killed By Lightning
AT BINDA
11th August 1886.

Happy homes are filled with sadness
Grief and sorrow reign around;
Within those homes, though the years pass over
Ne'er again will joy be found
Those who once were gay and happy
Now are bowed with grief and woe;

Heart rendering tears instead of laughter
What has caused it to be so?

One with whom they fondly loved and cherished
On this earth no more they'll see;
His cheerful voice, his words of kindness,
Are sadly missed, and ere will be.
Flowers may bloom in all their splendour
Sunshine fair shall Crown the earth;
But scenes of gladness ne'er can cheer them,
Nought can bring them joy or mirth.

They'll ever miss his gentle presence
When friends shall gather to their side,
His kindle deeds and jovial temper
Gained many hearts both far and wide
There were none who did not love him
His virtuous life entwined him here
To all who ever chanced to meet him;
By each and all he was held dear.

Full of hope, in early manhood,
The blooms of health his cheeks did glow
One moment standing well and happy;
The next in death he's lying low.
He died in his young wife's arms,
His head pillowed on her breast;
And the dying words he uttered
To her they were addressed.

It was a utter trial to lose him-
A bitter trial of grief and pain;
But there's a crown for calm submission,
Which his friends should strive to gain
And when Life's short span is over,
They may hope to meet once more,
Ne'er again to bear a parting
Their sorrow shall then be o'er.

MRS. JANE CUMMINS

Mrs. Jane Cummins, whose death at the age of 82 years occurred at the Crookwell Hospital early on Tuesday morning instant, was for many years a well-known resident of Laggan. She was a member of the O'Brian family, which was connected with the history of Laggan for close on a century. Her father, Mr. Dan O'Brien, kept the old Shamrock Inn, which was about a mile out of Laggan on the Goulburn-Bathurst road, over 90 years ago. When he died about 40 years ago his daughter, then Mrs. Fahey, became licensee, and ran the business for some time. Later, she bought the Laggan Hotel, retiring after a few years owing to failing health, and some 20 years on to her son James, who took over the hotel. The Mrs. Cummins was twice married her first husband was Mr. James Fahey, whose tragic death occurred when they were less than 12 months, married. He was working at a shed quite close to the house when he was killed by a flash of lightning. Later she married Mr. J.J. Cummins, who predeceased her about 30 years ago. Mrs. Cummins who was a remarkable woman in many ways fifty years ago she was regarded as the finest horsewoman in the district: in fact she was known as the Florence Nightingale of Laggan by many settlers living in scattered parts between the Abercrombie Rangers and Crookwell when sickness was in a home. She was a capable bush nurse, and it was no uncommon experience to her for night ride of many miles in the depth of winter, often along only bridle track, to visit some far distant settler's home on a mission of mercy. Her kindness and help in time of trouble and sickness in those far off days still remains in the memories of many. In the early days, when her father kept the Shamrock Inn, it was often visited by the bushrangers, and Mrs. Cummins could tell some thrilling stories of their exploits in and around Laggan, Limerick, Peelwood and Binda districts. She is survived by one son, James Fahey (Binda), and one sister, Mrs. Bobbin (Nimmitalbel). Her remains were interred in, the Catholic Cemetery, Laggan. The funeral was a very large one, the service at the graves were carried out by the Rev. Monsignor Vaughan, assisted by the Rev. Father Casey. .

Mrs. Broadhead was an ardent worker for various charitable and religious movements in the district and knew no denomination when any movement for the betterment of the social and religious life of the district was suggested. She was a great worker for the orphans and orphan institutions. The Bishop of Goulburn, Dr. Barry and the Sisters of different local. Convents paid regular visits to her during her illness and the widespread sympathy felt for her and her family was evidenced by the numerous visitors who called to see her during the time she was in hospital.

The remains were taken to St Michael's Church, Bungonia, on Friday and remained there until the next day, when a Requiem Mass for the repose of her soul which was held and was largely attended. Mass. was celebrated by Father Griffin, of Goulburn. The burial took place at the Bungonia Cemetery in the presence of many of the late Mrs. Broadhead's friends some of who had travelled considerable distance to be present.

GEORGE BROADHEAD:

George Broadhead was one of the first boarders at St. Patrick's College. With his father's early death he assumed the position of man of the house, the youngest family member being only 5 years of age. On his mother's death he managed his father's section of Inverary Park, then took over in 1898 the Post office/ Store at Inverary Park. He was a J.P. and on the board of Directors for Werriwa Times newspaper 1901 and for many years the President of the Progress Association. He retired to Sydney to live with his two youngest daughters Constance and Grace on the death of his wife Julia in 1929.

OBITUARY

MR. G. BROADHEAD The death occurred in Sydney yesterday of Mr. George Broadhead. Of 7 Webb Street, Croydon and formerly of Bungonia. The late Mr. Broadhead, who was a widower, was 79 years of age. Mr. Broadhead, who was a son of the late William Broadhead was native of Bungonia, where he had resided practically all his life. He was educated at St. Patrick's College; and subsequently engaged in farming and grazing. At all times he evinced a keen interest in the various projects undertaken in the district, and for several years was actively associated with the Old Bungonia Cricket Club. He disposed of his interests at Inverary Park and went to Sydney to live in retirement. Mr. Broadhead, whose wife predeceased him, is survived by five sons, Reginald (formerly of Goulburn and now of. Albury), Ernest (Bungonia), George, Leslie and Charles, and four daughters, Louisa (Mrs. J. H. Noonan), Elsie, Constance and Grace. Requiem Mass for the repose of his soul was celebrated at Holy Innocents' Church, Croydon, this morning. The remains were subsequently conveyed to Marulan by train, and the funeral will take place at the Bungonia cemetery at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Children of JULIA LEONARD and GEORGE BROADHEAD are:

BUNGONIA.

(From Our Correspondent.)

Death.-It is with much regret that I have to record that Mrs. Reg. Broadhead died at her late residence, Paddington, on Good Friday, after a short illness, from influenza. Her husband, Mr. Reg. Broadhead, who is a son of Mr. G. Broadhead, of Inverary, and is employed in the Telephone Department, was engaged in the country at the time of the sad event, and was unable to attend the funeral. The deceased lady was 28 years of age, and leaves a family of two young children, the younger being three years old. The late Mrs. Broadhead was a native of Goulburn, and formerly was Miss Alice Quinn.

25. JAMES⁵ LEONARD (JOHN⁴, PATRICK³, THOMAS², UNKNOWN MALE¹) was born 1877 in Tichborne NSW, and died 05 Aug 1932 in Leichhardt NSW. He married ROSE FALLON 1914 in Parkes NSW, daughter of JOHN FALLON and BRIDGET. She was born 1886 in Parkes NSW 20568/1886, and died 12 May 1983 in Parkes NSW.

JAMES LEONARD:

The death occurred suddenly on Friday morning, 5th inst., at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. Carson, Leichhardt, of Mr. James Leonard, well-known in the Parkes district as the teacher of the Goobang public school. Continued ill-health had taken him to Sydney on the 16th ult. to seek specialist advice. The deceased was born at Tichborne, being the eldest son of the late John Leonard. His education was received at Tichborne and Parkes.

After an early association with mining for some time he entered the teaching service about 25 years ago, and taught successively at Carrathool, Beargamil, Sparling Swamp and (for 16 years) at Goobang. He was a prominent member and a past president of the Parkes branch of the H.A.C.B. Society. Courteous, obliging, and always willing to lend a helping hand, the deceased was deservedly popular. Among his public interests are counted the Goobang Agricultural Bureau, public school athletics, the Parkes Trotting Club, and the local branch of the Teachers Federation. The remains were brought to Parkes for interment on the train of Saturday morning, 6th inst. After arrival at St. Jarlath's Church a Requiem Mass was celebrated by Right Rev. Monsignor J. Moran, V.G. The funeral to the Catholic cemetery was largely attended. Hibernians took a prominent part in the obsequies. The last prayers were recited by Monsignor Moran. Besides a widow, Mr. Leonard is survived by six children — James, Frank, John, Kathleen, Nancy and Reginald. Other surviving relatives are Mr. Hugh P. Leonard (Unanderra), brother; Mrs. A. Carson (Leichhardt), sister; and Miss Anne Leonard (Sydney), sister. — R.I.P.

STEALING AT DWELLING

Further evidence was taken on the charge against Funnell of stealing in a dwelling at Kenmore belonging to James Leonard. James Leonard, bricklayer, deposed that on the 9th August he missed a watch chain, some tobacco, butter, bread, and other articles from his house at Kenmore ; the property was worth about 6s. Funnell declined to be dealt with summarily, and he was committed for trial.

OBITUARY

MR. WILLIAM J. WELLS

Four prominent district graziers acted as pallbearers at the funeral at Queanbeyan Cemetery yesterday of the late William J. Wells, of "Wellsvale," Queanbeyan, who was found dead at his home on Sunday morning.

Mr. Wells visited Goulburn early last week and transacted business at Queanbeyan on Saturday, when he appeared to be in his usual good health.

Born at Bigga 51 years ago, the late Mr. Wells was very well known in the Southern Tablelands as a successful grazier with an extensive knowledge of sheep breeding. He commenced grazing operations at "Wellsvale" about 22 years ago.

Prior to settling in the Queanbeyan district Mr. Wells married Miss Gertrude May McDonnell at Woollahra Sydney, and the widow, six sons and one daughter survive. The members of the family are William, Edward, Gregory, Patrick, George, Reginald, and Miss Kathleen.

The funeral was held in the Roman Catholic portion of the Queanbeyan Cemetery yesterday, four members of the Graziers' Association, Messrs. J. C. Gorman ("Googong"), James Gibbs (Burra), Robert McAuley (The Googongs) and Ern Swan (Burra), acting as pallbearers.

Rev. Father Kerrigan officiated at a short service at St. Gregory's Church and at the graveside.

WEDDING.

WEDDING. Ryan-Broadhead. - St. Michael's Church, Bungonia, on Wednesday last was the scene of a pretty wedding, when Mr. James Ryan, fifth surviving son of the late Mr. Michael Ryan and Mrs. Ryan, of Brisbane Grove, and Miss Elsie Broadhead, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Broadhead, of Inverary, were married. The bride, who, in the absence of her father, was given away by her brother George, looked charming in a frock of cream charmeuse satin with draping of lace. She wore the customary wreath and veil, and carried a shower bouquet. Her gift from the bridegroom was a gold bangle. She was attended by two bridesmaids, Misses Connie and Grace Broadhead, sisters they were gowned in pretty frocks of cream corded silk, with hats to match. They wore gold crosses and chains, and carried baskets of lowers, the gifts of the bridegroom. Mr. John Ryan, brother of the bridegroom, was bestman. The Rev Father Collins conducted the ceremony, it being the first time he had so officiated. The altar and side altar had been nicely decorated for the occasion by the bride's lady friends with pear blossom and elderberry bloom, and presented a graceful appearance. After the ceremony the happy couple and their friends drove to Inverary, where a reception was held at the bride's parent's. Father Collins presided, and the usual toasts were honoured. Father Collins proposed the health of the married couple, and the bridegroom responded. Mr. John Ryan proposed "The Parents," and Mr. G. Broadhead, Father of the bride, responded. The bridegroom proposed the health of the bridesmaids, and Mr. John Ryan replied on their behalf. Mr. and Mrs. Ryan intend settling down in their new home at Corn, in this district. There were many wedding presents.

WELLS-HEFFERNAN

At St. Francis Xavier's Church, Gunning, the wedding was celebrated on Wednesday, May 31, of Ann Ellen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Heffernan, of "Blakney," Dalton, to Edward Joseph, second son of Mrs. G. Wells, and tile late Mr. W. J. Wells, of "Wellsvale," Queanbeyan. A Nuptial Mass was celebrated by the Rev.Fr. Carson, of Gunning.

The bride entered the church on tile arm of her father, who gave her away.

She wore a. graceful bridal gown of ivory satin and lace and her tulle veil was held in place by a pleated halo of tulle and rows of orange blossom. She added it trailing bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses and orchids and carried an ivory prayer book tied with coloured ribbons, presented by the Mother Superior of the Convent of Mercy, Goulburn.

Misses Alice and Vera Heffernan, sisters of the bride, attended as bridesmaids. They were frocked in ankle length, frocks of green and blue georgette with matching veils and scalloped hats. Their bouquets were of pink tuberoses, chrysanthemums, and ferns. Mr. Patrick Wells was best man and Mr. Leo Heffernan was groomsman. The wedding march was played by Miss Pat Lynch.

The reception was held at the way Guest House, where the bride's mother, assisted by the groom's mother, received the guests. Lovely flowers decorated the tables. R1ev. Fr. Carson presided.

They leaving for the honeymoon, spent in a motor tour of tile North Coast, the bride travelled in an ensemble of navy sheer with accessories to tulle. Mr. and Mrs. Wells will make their home at Canberra. Prior to the wedding the bride-was tendered it kitchen tea, by her many friends in the Blakney Creek district.

Notes for THOMAS MATTHEW SKELLY:

Name: Tom Skelly

Age: 16

Youth Squads: NSW U/17

Club: Southern Zone - Tully Park

Playing Profile: One of the most exciting fast bowlers to have come through our program. Tom is quick and has the great ability to move the ball. A relative unknown person at the moment, we are sure this will change very quickly. Tom's improvement over the past 6 months has been outstanding. A committed young man was a member of the NSW U/17 team that competed in the National Championship in Hobart January 2011. Failing injury will be the spearhead of the U/17s attack again this year. Tom will join the NSW Champions League tour party thanks to our Basil Sellers scholarship and take part in the pre tour preparation

A tale of two Skellys

28 Nov, 2011

CROOKWELL cricketer Nick Skelly will face some of the brightest up-and-coming cricketers next month – among them his cousin and best friend, Tom. The 15-year-old all-rounder was last week selected in the ACT under 17s team to compete at the National Titles in Hobart from December 6 to 15.

And while he'll pay homage to the teenage fast bowlers from around Australia labelled as Test potential, there is one he's most eager to face: his cousin Tom Skelly.

The two, according to Nick's father Kip, are closer than any set of brothers you'll find. But they'll leave their friendship in the change room when New South Wales, a team spearheaded by Tom, meets Nick's ACT.

"I'm really looking forward to facing Tom in a game," Nick, a batting all-rounder who isn't afraid to let rip with some leg spin, said.

"He's my best mate and I've faced plenty of him before, never anything like this though."

Nick admitted he was surprised when ACT high performance coach Andrew Dawson phoned with the good news last week.

"I'm pretty excited, over the moon you could say," he said.

"It'll be a challenge but it will make me a better cricketer."

His selection didn't come as a surprise to Dawson, who's watched the Crookwell High School student develop as a player and person.

"The reality is Nick has performed at every opportunity," Dawson said.

"His all-round ability is really exciting, especially at that age. He's going to get an opportunity against the best 17-year-olds in the country."

The rapid rise of teenage Test debutant Patrick Cummins and the ascension of Nathan Lyon from misfit to the number one spinner in the country will provide added motivation, Dawson says.

"The other thing that's exciting for these young guys is that 12 months ago, Nathan Lyon was playing for the Comets. Now he's in the Australian team. There's a big opportunity for them," he said.

When the National Titles commence, Nick won't be caught up in the prospect of further representative selection.

He'll be determined to get one up on his cousin

CLUE TO ROBBER

Wind Took It To Sergeant A scrap of paper, blown by the wind to the feet of a police sergeant in Market St. Tuesday night led to a charge of robbery being preferred against two young men who had been arrested a –short time previously on another count. The detention of the men was the result of a particularly smart piece of work by two uniformed officers, Sergeant Suitor and Constable Carroll, whose investigations revealed that on Tuesday afternoon a house at Grafton Street had been burgled and more than £13 in cash, as well as rings and other articles, had been stolen. According to inquiries made by the Penny Post it appears that burglars forced an entrance to the residence of Miss Bridget Leonard, who resides with her sister at 66 Grafton Street . Both occupants were absent at the time but it is believed that Miss Leonard returned home while the burglars were still at work and disturbed them. As she did not immediately report the occurrence, it was not until early yesterday morning that the police learned of the robbery and their attention was first directed by a report received on Tuesday night that two men had allegedly attempted to cash a cheque for £6 at a Goulburn Hotel. Inquiries revealed that the cheque, which is now believed to be similar to the one reported stolen from Miss Leonard's residence, had also been tendered at several other hotels. Into the arms of the police, Sergeant Suitor and Constable Carroll were walking down Verner Street to Auburn Street at about 11.30a.m. when two men whom they desired to interview almost ran into their arms and were taken to the police station. Continuing their investigations, the officers went to Market Street, where Sergeant Suitor picked up a small piece of paper which was blowing across the footpath. Its colour indicated it had been torn from a cheque and an examination of the area revealed similar scraps. Using their torches to examine gutters and culverts in both Market and Sloane Streets, the officers picked in about 50 pieces. These, it is stated are considered to be portions of the cheque in question. Further inquiries yesterday morning revealed that the residence of Miss Leonard had been entered on Tuesday and property including a cheque, had been stolen.

MEN CHARGED At the Goulburn Police Court yesterday morning John Alwyn Marshall and Lindsay Painter, 23, were each charged with breaking and entering the residence of Bridget Mary Leonard and stealing 3 rings, 3 broches, 3 trinkets, a cheque drawn on the Commercial Banking Company of Sydney in favour of Miss Leonard for £6, and the sum of £13/3/4. By consent, the defendants were remanded until Monday next on £40 bail. In announcing that the defendant did not oppose the remand application, which was sought to enable the police to make further inquiries, Sergeant Suitor said that part of the property reported stolen had been recovered.

'Both defendants were also fined 2/6 or the rising of the court on a charge of drunkenness.

JOHN HEFFERNAN V JOHN LEONARD

This was a claim of £30 for malicious prosecution. Mr. Howard appeared for plaintiff, and Mr. Gannon for defendant. Plaintiff deposed that he lived at Baw Baw; on the 5th June last Constable Drummond and the defendant came to his house and, read a search warrant to him; they said they had come to search his house for a pair of blankets; they searched the place and found nothing; defendant said that he had got the warrant, as plaintiff was seen at the camp a couple of days before; plaintiff's three children were at home at the time; plaintiff was not near defendant's camp; he only passed it along the road while coming in to Goulburn; he did not pass the camp in returning, as he came by another road. To Mr. Gannon: Defendant was quite a stranger to plaintiff; the camp was not on a by-road; he did not take nearly three hours in passing the camp; it was about two miles from his house. John Leonard, labourer, living, at Baw Baw, said that in June last he was living in a camp on the road-side; he missed a pair of blankets, worth about £1, while he was working on the road; the camp was on the old Crookwell road, which was not very much used; he saw no tramps on it while he was there; the day after he missed the blanket a man named Coggan told him he saw plaintiff at the camp; Meehan and Wessler, the contractors, sent a letter to Mr. Fenton, and Senior-constable Drummond came out and asked defendant whether he had any suspicions; defendant told him he had and the constable said he could do nothing without a search warrant; subsequently defendant signed a warrant and went to the place with the constable, as the latter said he did not know where Heffernan lived; nothing was found at the place; defendant told the plaintiff that he got the warrant because plaintiff had been seen close to the camp; defendant had no grudge against the man. Henry Thomas Coggan, labourer, said he remembered the day the blankets were missed; he saw Heffernan on that day about 30 yards from the camp, walking along the road; there was no one else in sight. Patrick Meehan, road contractor, said he wrote the letter produced to Mr. Fenton, reporting the lose of the blankets; he was on the road for 11 weeks and did not see a tramp on it. His Honor said that it appeared to him that defendant had no reasonable, probable cause for instituting the proceedings, but it also appeared to him that it was done without any malice. He found in favour of defendant with three witnesses.

WEDDING

GUISE-LEONARD

Nuptial Mass. was celebrated at SS. Peter and Paul's Cathedral on Monday, morning last, when -Harry, youngest son of the late Mr. and J Mrs. William Guise, of "Springfield," Gundaroo, was married: to Louise, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Leonard, of Murray's Flats. The ceremony was performed by Very Rev. Fr. Carey, Adm., who celebrated Nuptial Mass. The bride, who was given away by her father, Mr. James Leonard, looked charming in a gown of blue chiffon with hat to match. She carried a beautiful Ivory covered prayer book, the gift of the bridegroom. Her sister, Miss Jane Leonard, was bridesmaid and wore a frock of navy blue with hat to tone. The maids of honour, Miss Noelene Hughes and Miss Edna Meehan, nieces of the bridegroom, chose frocks of green crepe de chine and green muslin, respectively, and both carried pretty boutquets of carnations and ferns. Mr. Eugene Guise, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. Meehan, of Francis Street, Garfield, Mr. M. Carren being chairman. Later the couple left for the South Coast, where the honeymoon is to be spent, the bride travelling in a brown ensemble. The couple, who were the recipients of many presents including a number of cheques, will make their home at Kenmore.

LEONARD--GALLIGAN A, pretty wedding was solemnised with a Nuptial Mass at St. Bedes, Romans Catholic Church, Braidwood, recently, by the Rev. Father Derine, when Miss Mary Galligan, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Galligan, of Reidsdale, was married to Mr. Ernest James Leonard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Leonard, of Murray's Flat, near Goulburn. Miss Lizzie Galligan, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and Mr. Frederick Leonard, brother of the bridegroom was best man. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a charming dress of georgette, and tulle, lace and a beautiful veil of tulle lace, and carried a sheaf of gladioli; The bridesmaid's frock was of blue marocain and fawn trimmings. After the ceremonies the bride's mother received the guests at Mrs. A Campbell's, where the breakfast was held. The Rev. Father Derine presided, and in a very neat speech wished the happy couple long life happiness and prosperity in their future home. Other toasts were also given and responded to. After the breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard left by car for their future home at Taralga, the bride travelling in a very pretty frock of blue marocain.

Notes for MARTIN CLANCY:
"Laggan Hotel"

In 1855 Martin Clancy applied for a licence for the premises at Laggan, according to the application the building was being used as a store but now wanted to turn it into an Inn. Martin called it the Laggan Hotel.

Mrs Jane Fahey ran the hotel in 1897, then in the name of John Joseph Cummins (Jane's second husband) who ran it until 1898. It was then sold to M McAlister who had it for part of 1899 and then John Joseph Cummins bought it back again and ran it till the end of the century. In 1908 Mrs Cummins was charged with selling whisky on the Laggan sports ground on New Year's Day, without having a licence to do so, a court case ensued. In 1924 Jane Cummins built the present day hotel to replace the previous "Laggan Hotel" that was partially destroyed by fire. The hotel was previously located where the car park is, next to the present hotel. Jane's son James Simon Fahey assumed the ownership for a number of years and eventually left to run the Fahey family property "Islington" at Binda.

DEATH OF CAPTAIN PORTER

The sad news was received today that Captain Simon Fahey Porter, M.C., had died as a result of wounds. The information was cabled, to Mr. J. H. Larndager by Mrs. H. G. Wheeler. Captain Porter was on the teaching staff of the Red Hill State School and went into camp as a private about three years ago. His previous military training enabled him to quickly secure a commission and, on arrival in France, he soon rose to the rank of captain. He was awarded the Military Cross for bravery. Later he was seriously wounded, and for some time he was in hospital, the lower part of his body being paralysed. Captain Porter was about thirty years of age and was highly thought of by all who knew him. The flags at the various schools were flown at half mast, today as a mark of respect to his memory

17. JAMES SIMON⁴ FAHEY (CATHERINE³ LEONARD, THOMAS², UNKNOWN MALE¹) was born 1854 in Ballynakill Galway Ireland, and died 11 Aug 1886 in Binda NSW Rg 6772. He married JANE THERESA O'BRIEN 10 Jan 1886 in Laggan NSW Rg.4035, daughter of DANIEL O'BRIEN and CATHERINE BRAZIL. She was born 29 Aug 1854 in Laggan NSW Rg.1998-71 Bapt 14 Oct 1854 Peter And Pauls Goulburn, and died 03 Nov 1936 in Crookwell District Hospital NSW.

Notes for JAMES SIMON FAHEY:

James Simon Fahey was born at Ballynakill, Ireland, the son of Simon Fahey and Catherine Leonard. They arrived in Australia 1863 per "John Temperly" with brothers Simon and Michael.

James married Jane O'Brien and had one son James Simon born 1886, James was struck by lightning whilst building a shed with Joseph Bullard during a violent storm when lightning struck and hit him killing him instantly.

He died aged 31yrs of age after being married for just a year to Jane O'Brien.

FAHEY, James Simon
Crookwell Gazette,
Fri 13.8.1886

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING It is our painful duty to record the death of Mr. James Fahey, a well-known and highly-respected resident of Binda, which sad occurrence took place between three and four o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. It appears that during a thunderstorm on that day the deceased, with a youth named Bullard, was at work erecting a shed and had been using a spade, when he was struck by lightning on the back of the neck and killed.

The lad was knocked down by the force of the shock, but was not seriously injured. A huge tree about thirty yards from the shed was at the same time splintered into atoms. Bullard immediately informed Mr. Michael Fahey, deceased's brother and also deceased's wife, who at once ran to where her husband was lying. The unfortunate man was not then dead, and seeing his wife he put his arms about her neck, and saying "I'm all right", expired. Mr. Michael Fahey reported the sad occurrence to Senior-Constable Travers, who communicated with the coroner. An inquest was held yesterday afternoon. Deceased, who was about thirty years of age, was a son-in-law of Mr. Daniel O'Brien, the well-known hotelkeeper of Laggan. The deepest sympathy is felt by all in the district with Mrs. Fahey, who has been married only about seven months. The Fahey family also share the heartfelt regret of their friends and neighbours. The funeral will take place tomorrow, and will leave the deceased's late residence at 10 am.

Goulburn Herald, Sat 14.8.1886

CROOKWELL Friday 4.25 pm Yesterday morning news was brought here that Mr. James Fahey of Binda had been killed the previous evening by lightning. Deceased was engaged with a young man named Bullard putting up a shearing shed. At about two in the afternoon during a very severe thunderstorm, a vivid flash of lightning came near them. Bullard was struck down, but immediately jumped up; he then saw Fahey falling; he went to him and raised him up. Fahey said, 'for God's sake, lay me down.' Fahey's wife was engaged in the kitchen a hundred yards away, which was also struck by lightning, breaking some crockery; she ran out in alarm and saw her husband being supported. In answer to her he said, 'I am right - I am right,' then groaned and died. An inquest was held yesterday.

Great sympathy is felt for Fahey's relatives and widow. Deceased had been married only about seven months.

CROOKWELL INQUEST

An inquest was held at Binda by M. Prosser, coroner, on Thursday, 12th instant, upon the body of James Fahey killed the previous day by lightning. The following jury were sworn: Rev E G Hutchings, James Eldridge, G T Hall, W A Long, Jas Doran, Chas E Doran, J Hoy, T Atkinson, George King, Alexander McDonald, Frederick Branson, and A H McDonald, foreman. The jurors, having viewed the body.

Constable Travers deposed: I am in charge of the police station, Binda; between 3 and 4 o'clock yesterday evening Michael Fahey, deceased's brother, came to the station and stated that his brother James had been killed by lightning; I proceeded at once to the place; the deceased was lying in the parlour of his residence; I felt the body; it was quite warm, but life was extinct; there were no marks of violence upon the body; the back part of the neck was discoloured; on inquiry I found that the deceased had been working at a shed about 100 yards from the house; about 50 yards from the spot where deceased had been working I saw a tree that had been splintered to pieces by the lightning; I examined the place where deceased had been working and found his tools round there; no appearance of any disturbance was about the ground; deceased was always of very temperate habits.

Joseph Bullard deposed: I am a labourer residing near Binda; yesterday evening I was working with Mr James Fahey; we were putting up slabs for a shearing shed, at which the deceased was standing close to the door; I was digging a trench for slabs to be put in; at about half past two during a thunder storm a heavy flash of lightning came between us; I fell to the ground, and on rising saw the deceased James Fahey, reel and fall; I ran to his assistance and held him up; he said, 'Oh, for God's sake let me lie down again;' Mrs. James Fahey came running, seeing me hold him up and she said, 'You are not dead, are you James?' and he said, 'no, I am all right;' I ran over and fetched a cup of water; I also ran to Mrs. Hampstead, a neighbour, and she came over and assisted Mrs. James Fahey to carry the deceased into the house.

To Constable Travers: I was on friendly terms with the deceased and never had any quarrel with him. To a Juror: the deceased was not able to walk to the house. Jane Fahey deposed: the deceased, whom the jury had just viewed was my husband; yesterday afternoon at about half past two, during a storm I was in the kitchen of our house; the lightning struck the mantle piece and broke several ornaments; I ran out and called for my husband who was working at the shed about 50 yards distant; he did not answer and I then saw Joseph Bullard holding him up; I ran to him and said, 'James, are you dead?' and he said, 'No, Jane, I am all right - I am all right;' he groaned and never moved any more; Mrs. Hampstead, a neighbour came over and with her assistance I put him on a sofa and carried him over to the house; old Mr. Hampstead met us on the way and assisted us; when I lifted deceased on to the sofa he appeared to be dead. William Hampstead deposed: I am a farmer residing at the Crookwell River; yesterday afternoon, about half past two I heard some screaming near my house which is about 20 or 30 rods distant from M. James Fahey's residence, and when I got to the house some one said, 'Jim (meaning the deceased) is dead;' I went over to the shed and found him lying on a sofa with a blanket over; there was a very heavy thunderstorm occurring at the time, with lightning; I felt his hand for a moment or two and found he was dead; I assisted to carry him in to the house. The jury found that the deceased, James Fahey, was killed by a stroke of lightning at his residence near Binda, on the afternoon of Wednesday, 11th August. This sad event has thrown a gloom over the town of Binda where Mr. James Fahey was well and deservedly respected. But seven months ago the deceased was married to Miss Jane O'Brien, daughter of Mr. Daniel O'Brien of Laggan, thus involving also that family in the gloom attending this unhappy event. d 11.8.1886, par Simon/Catherine Leonard, husband of Jane Theresa O'Brien who m 2. Jane took over the licence of the "Shamrock Inn" after her fathers death. Later Jane and her second husband John Cummins bought the Laggan Hotel in 1897 and sold the "Shamrock Inn" which was to become a private residence.

Goulburn Post 9 Nov 1936

MRS. JANE CUMMINS

Mrs. Jane Cummins, whose death at the age of 82 years occurred at the Crookwell Hospital early on Tuesday morning instant, was for many years a well-known resident of Laggan. She was a member of the O'Brian family, which was connected with the history of Laggan for close on a century. Her father, Mr. Dan O'Brien, kept the old Shamrock Inn, which was about a mile out of Laggan on the Goulburn-Bathurst road, over 90 years ago. When he died about 40 years ago his daughter, then Mrs. Fahey, became licensee, and ran the business for some time. Later, she bought the Laggan Hotel, retiring after a few years owing to failing health, and some 20 years on to her son James, who took over the hotel. The Mrs. Cummins was twice married her first husband was Mr. James Fahey, whose tragic death occurred when they were less than 12 months, married. He was working at a shed quite close to the house when he was killed by a flash of lightning. Later she married Mr. J.J. Cummins, who predeceased her about 30 years ago. Mrs. Cummins who was a remarkable woman in many ways fifty years ago she was regarded as the finest horsewoman in the district: in fact she was known as the Florence Nightingale of Laggan by many settlers living in scattered parts between the Abercrombie Rangers and Crookwell when sickness was in a home. She was a capable bush nurse, and it was no uncommon experience to her for night ride of many miles in the depth of winter, often along only bridle track, to visit some far distant settler's home on a mission of mercy. Her kindness and help in time of trouble and sickness in those far off days still remains in the memories of many. In the early days, when her father kept the Shamrock Inn, it was often visited by the bushrangers, and Mrs. Cummins could tell some thrilling stories of their exploits in and around Laggan, Limerick, Peelwood and Binda districts. She is survived by one son, James Fahey (Binda), and one sister, Mrs. Bobbin (Nimmitalbel). Her remains were interred in the Catholic Cemetery, Laggan. The funeral was a very large one, the service at the graves were carried out by the Rev. Monsignor Vaughan, assisted by the Rev. Father Casey. .

JAMES LEONARD:

The death occurred suddenly on Friday morning, 5th inst., at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. Carson, Leichhardt, of Mr. James Leonard, well-known in the Parkes district as the teacher of the Goobang public school. Continued ill-health had taken him to Sydney on the 16th ult. to seek specialist advice. The deceased was born at Tichborne, being the eldest son of the late John Leonard. His education was received at Tichborne and Parkes.

After an early association with mining for some time he entered the teaching service about 25 years ago, and taught successively at Carrathool, Beargamil, Sparling Swamp and (for 16 years) at Goobang. He was a prominent member and a past president of the Parkes branch of the H.A.C.B. Society. Courteous, obliging, and always willing to lend a helping hand, the deceased was deservedly popular. Among his public interests are counted the Goobang Agricultural Bureau, public school athletics, the Parkes Trotting Club, and the local branch of the Teachers Federation. The remains were brought to Parkes for interment on the train of Saturday morning, 6th inst. After arrival at St. Jarlath's Church a Requiem Mass was celebrated by Right Rev. Monsignor J. Moran, V.G. The funeral to the Catholic cemetery was largely attended. Hibernians took a prominent part in the obsequies. The last prayers were recited by Monsignor Moran. Besides a widow, Mr. Leonard is survived by six children — James, Frank, John, Kathleen, Nancy and Reginald. Other surviving relatives are Mr. Hugh P. Leonard (Unanderra), brother; Mrs. A. Carson (Leichhardt), sister; and Miss Anne Leonard (Sydney), sister. — R.I.P.

STEALING AT DWELLING

Further evidence was taken on the charge against Funnell of stealing in a dwelling at Kenmore belonging to James Leonard. James Leonard, bricklayer, deposed that on the 9th August he missed a watch chain, some tobacco, butter, bread, and other articles from his house at Kenmore: the property was worth about 6s. Funnell declined to be dealt with summarily, and he was committed for trial.

OBITUARY

MR. WILLIAM J. WELLS

Four prominent district graziers acted as pallbearers at the funeral at Queanbeyan Cemetery yesterday of the late William J. Wells, of "Wells-vale," Queanbeyan, who was found dead at his home on Sunday morning.

Mr. Wells visited Goulburn early last week and transacted business at Queanbeyan on Saturday, when he appeared to be in his usual good health.

Born at Bigga 51 years ago, the late Mr. Wells was very well known in the Southern Tablelands as a successful grazier with an extensive knowledge of sheep breeding. He commenced grazing operations at "Wellsvale" about 22 years ago.

Prior to settling in the Queanbeyan district Mr. Wells married Miss Gertrude May McDonnell at Woollahra Sydney, and the widow, six sons and one daughter survive. The members of the family are William, Edward, Gregory, Patrick, George, Reginald, and Miss Kathleen.

The funeral was held in the Roman Catholic portion of the Queanbeyan Cemetery yesterday, four members of the Graziers' Association, Messrs. J. C. Gorman ("Googong"), James Gibbs (Burra), Robert McAuley (The Googongs) and Ern Swan (Burra), acting as pallbearers.

Rev. Father Kerrigan officiated at a short service at St. Gregory's Church and at the graveside.

WEDDING.

Ryan-Broadhead. - St. Michael's Church, Bungonia, on Wednesday last was the scene of a pretty wedding, when Mr. James Ryan, fifth surviving son of the late Mr. Michael Ryan and Mrs. Ryan, of Brisbane Grove, and Miss Elsie Broadhead, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Broadhead, of Inverary, were married. The bride, who, in the absence of her father, was given away by her brother George, looked charming in a frock of cream charmeuse satin with draping of lace. She wore the customary wreath and veil, and carried a shower bouquet. Her gift from the bridegroom was a gold bangle. She was attended by two bridesmaids, Misses Connie and Grace Broadhead, sisters they were gowned in pretty frocks of cream corded silk, with hats to match. They wore gold crosses and chains, and carried baskets of lowers, the gifts of the bridegroom. Mr. John Ryan, brother of the bridegroom, was bestman. The Rev Father Collins conducted the ceremony, it being the first time he had so officiated. The altar and side altar had been nicely decorated for the occasion by the bride's lady friends with pear blossom and elderberry bloom, and presented a graceful appearance. After the ceremony the happy couple and their friends drove to Inverary, where a reception was held at the bride's parent'. Father Collin presided, and the usual toasts were honoured. Father Collins proposed the health of the married couple, and the bridegroom responded. Mr. John Ryan proposed "The Parents," and Mr. G. Broadhead. Father of the bride, responded. The bridegroom proposed the health of the bridesmaids, and Mr. John Ryan replied on their behalf. Mr. and Mrs. Ryan intend settling down in their new home at Corn, in this district. There were many wedding presents.

KOPPMAN-PIGGOTT

The wedding took place at Ss.Peter and Paul's Cathedral, on May 26, at 6.30 p.m., of Kathleen Mary Piggott, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Piggott, of Ladley Street, Goulburn, to George Ernest Koppman, fourth son of the late Mr. R. Koppman and of Mrs. Koppman, of Numeralla, via Cooma. Miss Hasler presided at the organ and Rev. Father Cosgriff officiated. When given away by her father, the bride wore a gown of whiterose over satin, cut on classical lines and her veil, which was held in place by a coronet of lace, was lent by Mrs. A. S. Sieler of Penrose. She carried white sweet peas and roses. Miss Helen Piggott, sister of the bride was bridesmaid, and wore green taffeta, with a short tulle veil to match held in place with sweetpeas. Her bouquet was of pink sweet peas and roses. Mr. Jack Collier was best man. The reception was attended by about 60 guests, and was held in the Australian Cafe, Auburn Street, where the bride's mother received the guests frocked in black satin backed crepe with matching accessories. The groom's mother, who assisted her wore a gown of black crepe glamour and accessories. The bride wore a frock of blue wool de chene with black accessories when travelling to the South Coast and Bombala, where the honeymoon was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Koppman will make their home at Numeralla, via Cooma.

WELLS-HEFFERNAN

At St. Francis Xavier's Church, Gunning, the wedding was celebrated on Wednesday, May 31, of Ann Ellen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Heffernan, of "Blakney," Dalton, to Edward Joseph, second son of Mrs. G. Wells, and tile late Mr. W. J. Wells, of "Wellsvale," Queanbeyan. A Nuptial Mass was celebrated by the Rev.Fr. Carson, of Gunning.

The bride entered the church on tile arm of her father, who gave her away. She wore a. graceful bridal gown of ivory satin and lace and her tulle veil was held in place by a pleated halo of tulle and rows of orange blossom. She added it trailing bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses and orchids and carried an ivory prayer book tied with coloured ribbons, presented by the Mother Superior of the Convent of Mercy, Goulburn.

Misses Alice and Vera Heffernan, sisters of the bride, attended as bridesmaids. They were frocked in ankle length, frocks of green and blue georgette with matching veils and scalloped hats. Their bouquets were of pink tuberose, chrysanthemums, and ferns. Mr. Patrick Wells was best man and Mr. Leo Heffernan was groomsman. The wedding march was played by Miss Pat Lynch.

The reception was held at the way Guest House, where the bride's mother, assisted by the groom's mother, received the guests. Lovely flowers decorated the tables. Rlev. Fr. Carson presided.

They leaving for the honeymoon, spent in a motor tour of tile North Coast, the bride travelled in an ensemble of navy sheer with accessories to tulle. Mr. and Mrs. Wells will make their home at Canberra. Prior to the wedding the bride-was tendered it kitchen tea, by her many friends in the Blakney Creek district.

Name: Tom Skelly

Age: 16

Youth Squads: NSW U/17

Club: Southern Zone - Tully Park

Playing Profile: One of the most exciting fast bowlers to have come through our program. Tom is quick and has the great ability to move the ball. A relative unknown person at the moment, we are sure this will change very quickly. Tom's improvement over the past 6 months has been outstanding. A committed young man was a member of the NSW U/17 team that competed in the National Championship in Hobart January 2011. Failing injury will be the spearhead of the U/17s attack again this year. Tom will join the NSW Champions League tour party thanks to our Basil Sellers scholarship and take part in the pre tour preparation

- iv. SAMUEL PATRICK SKELLY, b. 19 Feb 1999, Goulburn NSW.

NICHOLAS DESMOND SKELLY:

A tale of two Skellys
28 Nov, 2011

CROOKWELL cricketer Nick Skelly will face some of the brightest up-and-coming cricketers next month – among them his cousin and best friend, Tom. The 15-year-old all-rounder was last week selected in the ACT under 17s team to compete at the National Titles in Hobart from December 6 to 15.

And while he'll pay homage to the teenage fast bowlers from around Australia labelled as Test potential, there is one he's most eager to face: his cousin Tom Skelly.

The two, according to Nick's father Kip, are closer than any set of brothers you'll find. But they'll leave their friendship in the change room when New South Wales, a team spearheaded by Tom, meets Nick's ACT.

"I'm really looking forward to facing Tom in a game," Nick, a batting all-rounder who isn't afraid to let rip with some leg spin, said.

“He’s my best mate and I’ve faced plenty of him before, never anything like this though.”

Nick admitted he was surprised when ACT high performance coach Andrew Dawson phoned with the good news last week.

“I’m pretty excited, over the moon you could say,” he said.

“It’ll be a challenge but it will make me a better cricketer.”

His selection didn’t come as a surprise to Dawson, who’s watched the Crookwell High School student develop as a player and person.

“The reality is Nick has performed at every opportunity,” Dawson said.

“His all-round ability is really exciting, especially at that age. He’s going to get an opportunity against the best 17-year-olds in the country.”

The rapid rise of teenage Test debutant Patrick Cummins and the ascension of Nathan Lyon from misfit to the number one spinner in the country will provide added motivation, Dawson says.

“The other thing that’s exciting for these young guys is that 12 months ago, Nathan Lyon was playing for the Comets. Now he’s in the Australian team. There’s a big opportunity for them,” he said.

When the National Titles commence, Nick won’t be caught up in the prospect of further representative selection.

He’ll be determined to get one up on his cousin
